

ONLY FRANCE NOW OPPOSES MEET

Belgium and Italy Drop French View and Join America

New Alignment of European Allies Stimulates Hope of United States Officials for Unrestricted Meeting on Reparations.

(By The Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—State department officials today indicated that Great Britain, Italy and Belgium have reached an accord favoring a free and full reparations inquiry by an expert committee.

In effect the position of these three governments as understood here coincides with that taken by the United States and opposes the stand for a restricted inquiry only taken by France.

This development, indicating an entirely new alignment of the European allies over the reparations question, appeared to stimulate hope here that eventually the French government, too, would accept an unrestricted program of inquiry rather than risk diplomatic dissolution. Heretofore, both Belgium and Italy have followed the French lead in most of the questions arising out of the reparations problem.

A full statement of the French position was brought to Washington today by Ambassador Jussier, just back from Paris, and it was indicated that after his talk with Secretary Hughes during the afternoon, the American government might be in position to determine without much delay whether participation in the expert inquiry would be regarded as worthwhile.

The government holds to its view, meaning that the inquiry should be the fullest possible exploration by the experts of the facts that underlie (Continued on page three.)

Conflict In Views As To Legality Of Changes In Traffic Direction

Not all of the changes which were proposed in the direction of traffic by City Engineer R. K. Linnville and F. G. Towell, the traffic board, became effective this morning. The proposed changes were to have gone into effect Sunday but the signs noting the changes were not placed on the streets in time.

The board developed that the public works committee would not sanction the experiment because an unusual confusion in traffic might be the result. It had been proposed to make Market street a one-way street to alter the direction of traffic on South Union street and to restrict partially traffic on North Union street.

Merchants on Market street did not accept his proposed innovation. Of that street without protest, for they realized that by making the street a one-way thoroughfare that there would be a loss of business. The committee therefore would not permit the proposed change as an experiment which had been announced by the city engineer and the traffic officer. It was agreed, however, to change the direction of traffic on South Union street and to restrict partially traffic on North Union street. A sign was posted notifying drivers that they could enter the street from Main street, instead of from Patton street.

ROAD QUESTION MOST IMPORTANT FOR YEARS

(By The Associated Press.) RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 5.—Final touches of the campaign by advocates of a bond issue for road financing and plan were made today in preparation for the referendum tomorrow, when the voters of Virginia will decide whether the state highway system shall be completed several years under the bond issue method than under the direct taxation plan now in force. The election is the first of the fifty million dollar bond issue at which time the people will decide whether the state highway program shall be completed by the taxation of bonds or if the money shall be provided by the "pay-as-you-go" system.

Community Ready For Chest Drive Opening Wednesday

Local Teams to Canvass City for $65,000 to Support Nine Local Organizations During Coming Year.

Practically everything is in readiness for the Community Chest Drive which begins here on Wednesday morning and continues through Wednesday, November 14th. The campaign will be formally started tomorrow night at a big supper to be given in the auditorium at the Y. M. C. A. when the entire organization and team members which comprise the various teams will be present to be given final instructions, and prospects.

One hundred and sixty volunteer workers now comprise the various teams and a systematic campaign will be on in earnest Wednesday morning. Captains of competitive teams will meet this afternoon in the Y. W. C. A. for the purpose of selecting prospects.

The entire organization will then meet tomorrow night at 6:30 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A. Names will be arranged and active work begun. Each team will have separate tables at the supper and the same plan as carried out last year will be followed. A sumptuous supper will be served.

Those who have been engaged on the preliminary work—such as the Community Chest has been adequately presented to the public and that Danville's response during the coming week will more than measure up to expectations. The chest plan is no longer a novelty, they claim, but that last year's experience showed that this method of providing for the local charity working organizations is the most efficient and has brought a realization that more effective work can be done through the single appeal than by the individual appeal.

The amount sought this year, $65,000, is smaller than last year. The largest amount on the budget is $13,350 for Hilltop Sanatorium, one of the greatest institutions of its kind where persons afflicted with tuberculosis can secure modern treatment free if they are unable to pay the expenses. From 25 to 30 patients are constantly in this institution and the past record of the institution shows many men and women and youths restored to a normal condition and given a new lease on life.

The Y. M. C. A. is to be awarded $11,000 to carry on its work among the boys of the community. The Y. W. C. A. of more recent foundation but nonetheless effective in catering to girls and women will be given $19,000. The Community Chest association which is dealing with distress on the basis of modern treatment is asking for $9,500. The Salvation Army, the work of which organization is already widely known will get $5,000. The Danville Library, the only agency of its kind where school children can find works of reference and where the lovers of literature can satisfy their wants will receive $3,000. The Danville Ad which has for several years been accomplishing a great work at the railway station will get $2,000 and the Boy Scouts organization included in the Community Chest budget for the first time this year is asking for $2,000 which will go to paying the salary of a trained executive.

Included in the budget is the sum of $3,150 which is listed as shrinkage and emergency.

Nearly all of the larger Virginia cities have adopted the Community Chest plan and have found it effective.

Morehouse Parish Citizens On Trial

Almost Score, Mostly Klan Members, Arraigned In Connection With Hooded Band Operations.

(By The Associated Press.) BASTROP, La., Nov. 5.—Nearly a score of citizens of Morehouse Parish most of whom have admitted they were members of the Ku Klux Klan were to face Judge Fred L. Odum of the Sixth District Court today on misdemeanor charges in connection with hooded band operations in this vicinity which had its culmination in the kidnapping and disappearance of Daniel and T. C. Richard of Mer Rouge on August 24 last year. Four months later two mutilated bodies identified as those of Daniel and Richard were taken from Lake Lafourche near here.

None of the cases is to be tried before a jury, but will be handled by Judge Odum. Eleven persons are to be called today. They are, together with the charges made against them, as follows:

W. G. McIntosh, Marvin Pickett, Captain J. K. Skiphith, baited cyclone storm, Morehouse Parish, Ku Klux Klan; Benton Pratt, Cud Pickett, Sam Elridge and Sam Cox, with carrying firearms on the premises of another; Laurie Calhoun, T. Jeff Burnett, former sheriff; Hester Rogers, assault with a dangerous weapon; Captain Skiphith, Burnett, Fred Higginbotham, conspiring to compel a person to leave his place of business; Captain Skiphith, Marvin and Cud Pickett, Cox, Pratt, Elridge and McIntosh, conspiring to compel a person to leave his home and Calhoun, conspiring to compel a person to leave Bastrop.

The cases set for trial beginning Wednesday and the charges involved are:

W. P. Kirkpatrick, Dr. R. H. McKeon, former mayor of Mer Rouge, result with a dangerous weapon; Kirkpatrick and McKeon, conspiring to compel a person to leave the Parish; Captain Skiphith, Burnett, E. N. Gray, Oliver Skiphith and Smith Stevenson, conspiring to compel a person to leave an automobile.

The last named in the charge is the only one of the misdemeanor cases that relate directly to the Daniel and Richard kidnapping. It was the general belief that the state included in the hope that developments during the trial might bring about further proceedings. No date has been fixed for trials or more than a dozen persons charged with felonies in bills of information filed by Attorney General Cocco.

TOWN TOPICS

The handsome Holy Communion set donated to Main Street Methodist church by J. J. Hickey, of Richmond, in memory of his father, C. J. Hickey, who, at the time of his death, was the oldest steward in point of service at that church, was consecrated at special services at Main Street church yesterday morning. The set, which includes a chalice, Communion, Rev. Thomas A. Smoot made the presentation to Mr. Hickey's long and useful life in the church and giving a sketch of his life. The board of stewards elected several days ago also was installed and partook of the Sacrament. The board is composed of James T. Catlin, chairman; Emeritus; E. T. Parham, chairman; J. A. Jordan, vice chairman; D. P. Garvin, secretary; D. P. Garvin, treasurer; D. K. Keen, C. L. Booth, W. W. Ayres, R. A. Schoolfield, J. N. Wyllie, O. W. Dudley, W. B. Hill, J. P. Penn, J. P. Swanson, L. Sunday's all night rain curtailed the tobacco deliveries on the local market floors and the offerings at the Danville market were short. Warehousemen this afternoon were waiting for heavy sales for the rest of the week with a heavy influx of tobacco from all sections during the late afternoon. No material change in prices this morning, all desirable grades selling well.

Danville will make an earnest bid for the next Virginia Methodist Conference. When the conference committee meets at the Danville Methodist church this city will be presented. It is now seven or more years since the Conference was held in Danville and latterly the session has alternated between Richmond and Norfolk. There has been evidence of dissatisfaction on the part of other cities of Virginia since this plan was adopted and it would not be surprising were the conference to be held in Danville. The church has been the use of its entire church and Sunday school building for the session with the added undertaking to serve dinner to the conference delegates daily in the Sunday school.

Rev. H. W. Connelly formerly pastor of the Second Baptist church here has accepted a call to Melrose Baptist church, Roanoke yesterday. The church is building a new parsonage and for several weeks Rev. and Mrs. Connelly will have temporary lodgings in the Danville hotel. The finance committee of the city council will meet Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock to prepare the report to be submitted to the council on Monday night next. Several matters which have lain over for the necessary period will be up for action, these including action on the new city charter, action on the new policy of distributing fire insurance policies among the firms in the city.

Judge Withers will hear arguments tomorrow on the motion to dissolve the restraining order against the Co-operative Marketing Association. The hearing will be held in the Mayor's court since the corporation court room will be utilized as a voting precinct. It was learned this afternoon that the restraining order made delay the arguments until the afternoon because Tuesday is a heavy sales day and representatives of the auction warehouse companies are desirous of being on hand but do not wish to be called away from the city.

William A. Meador Died Saturday Night

William A. Meador passed away night at 11 o'clock at his residence, 7477 East St. Louis street, after an illness of eleven weeks' duration. Mr. Meador was a native of Rockingham county, N. C., having been born near Reidsville at the old ancestral home of the Meadors August 8, 1881. He was married to Miss Wina Harrison during the year, 1922. Of this union the following children survive:

For the past five years he was employed by the Dan River Mills at Schoolfield, he being held the highest esteem for his work by this company.

Mr. Meador was a gentleman of quiet unassuming manner, a loyal friend, and a consecrated christian. As a steward for many years of the Danville Methodist church he was a most exemplary official. As a member of the Brotherhood Bible class of the Sunday school he was faithful in his attendance.

The funeral service will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Danville Methodist church, conducted by Rev. S. J. Battin. The interment will be made at Green Hill cemetery.

MUTINY ABOARD LIQUOR VESSEL

(By The Associated Press.) JACKSONVILLE, Nov. 4.—Mutiny aboard a liquor ship, the Captain and crew of the vessel were in the House investigating committee and the engineer, cook and three stowaways in command—these are high spots in a tale awaiting confirmation today while prohibition agent Hazeltine searches the Upper Florida coast in search of the auxiliary schooner Louise F. said to be of British registry.

Three negroes, who said they were members of the crew and had been released from the ship, told the committee that the crew had been told to aid him in running a boat load of liquor ashore, escaping when the engineer became intoxicated, told the story last night after they had been directed to the sheriff at St. Augustine by a man who found them wandering about Pablo Beach.

The Louise F. according to the negroes, fell into the hands of the mutineers last Tuesday, while off the Florida coast. Confronted by pistols, the captain, his mate, boatman and four negro sailors were forced into the schooner, which left Jacksonville last Sunday for England. Loaded with liquor, it is said to be 14 miles south of St. John's River mouth, and about one mile off shore. Sheriff Boyce at St. Augustine said the negroes told him they had unloaded thirty cases of liquor along the coast about 14 miles from St. Augustine, and that the ship was on the ship. On the third trip a way capsize the dory about 100 yards off shore, almost drowning the negroes. Making their way to shore they were told the negroes, who said they are from Nassau, are being held here pending investigation.

8 Langley Field Planes To Take Part In Circus

(By The Associated Press.) NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Nov. 5.—Eight Martin bombers left Langley field at 11 o'clock yesterday morning for New York where they will take part in the aerial circus to be staged today for the army-relief fund.

The machines were scheduled to leave this morning, but plans were changed yesterday morning as bad weather in prospect for today.

From New York the machines will fly to Chicago to take part in an aerial exhibition in that city. Just when they will leave New York is not known. A stop will be made at Balling Field, Washington, however.

FOUR DWELLING SOLD

Four frame dwellings at the corner of Union and Floyd streets, part of the old Linn estate, but more recently owned by E. L. Edwards, were sold at auction on Saturday in settlement of the estate. D. L. Edmunds was the buyer at $4,650.

COAL CO. STOCK SALE PROBED BY GRAND JURY

The corporation court grand jury will this afternoon undertake an inquiry into the affairs of the First National Coal Corporation in which a number of shares of stock are said to have been sold in this city several months ago. This was indicated as one of the matters to be taken up by the grand jury, in making its first report stated that it had completed most of its business but that the commonwealth's attorney had three other matters to be put before it. These three matters are investigation of the circumstances under which stock in the coal concern was sold here, an alleged assault committed by E. L. Meador on Ben R. Powell, and an alleged assault committed by E. L. Meador on Ben R. Powell.

The case of Allen Meadows charged with wife desertion was certified to the Juvenile Court for disposition. Fred Goodlake who noted an appeal from the police court where he was fined for operating his car with improper lights was fined $5.

In Goodlake's case, the accused failed to appear and he was tried in his absence after the bond of $250 put up by his mother, Mrs. F. J. Goodlake had been ordered forfeited by the court.

Algie Banks, a negro, who appealed from a police court decision in which he was fined for operating his car without license was secured an acquittal by the grand jury. He had been ordered to appear before the grand jury.

The appearance in the courthouse this morning of B. R. Powell, of Greensboro, in the information being disclosed that the fact that two assaults have of recent date been committed in the city postoffice and that no action has been taken by the state authorities. It further developed that this complaint was made to the Commonwealth's attorney and that the official intended to place the facts in connection with the affair. The alleged assaults which will be investigated are those involving E. L. Lumpkin and Ben R. Powell, of Greensboro, and the trial of Messrs. Berman and Powell had been summoned to appear before the grand jury.

Indications pointed to the grand jury first of all would dispose of the regular indictments placed before it before taking up this, and possibly another matter during the course of the afternoon.

CHOIR MEMBERS ASKED TO ATTEND PRACTICE NOV. 11

Prof. Joseph Vezzetti, of the McChesfield band, who has been asked to give a choir for the Armistice Day celebration at the State Fair, November 11, has asked that all choir members of the various churches of the city meet him at the Armistice at 2:45 next Sunday to practice several hymns.

Soluti Mmuscle Shoals Problem

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—A plan for solution of the Muscle Shoals problem, which would provide for the properties for which Henry Ford has a plan to take the place of the gorges steam plant, sold recently to the Alabama Power Company, has been worked out here by friends of the Detroit manufacturer and will be submitted to him soon for approval.

Representative Brynes, Democrat, Tennessee, it was learned here tonight, has been in conference in Washington with others who have backed the Ford offer, with a view to having the government duplicate the gorges plant and place it definitely in the Muscle Shoals enterprise. Such a project, it is said by some of those favoring it, could be erected with the proceeds of the sale of the gorges plant and its action could solve the difficult situation which has complicated the whole Muscle Shoals program.

Mr. Ford has announced that he would not modify his offer, which included the gorges plant, held by him, but he has been casting about to see if a way could not be found to have him accept them away and have brought forward the plant outlined. So far as known, government officials have not yet been approached on the subject.

NEWS OF CHATHAM

CHATHAM, Nov. 8.—This has been a banner week in receipts for the local Co-operative Tobacco Growers' Association in tobacco since the opening of the season in October. The million pounds mark was passed this week, the receipts for the week being around four hundred thousand pounds which added to the seven hundred thousand at the close of last week safely carried the total receipts beyond the million pounds mark. Each successive week the receipts have increased from 113,000 the opening week to around 400,000 the week just closed. The advances have been very good and the members generally pleased. Much speculation has been indulged in as to the third payment on the crop of last year but nothing definite has been given out at headquarters as many are of the opinion that the tobacco crop on hand from the crop of last year is of very high quality and when sold the payment will be the larger in proportion to the price received for the stock when sold. The redrying plant here is busy every day and at close of business one week ago had on hand about 600,000 pounds and then on hand about 200,000 to begin the business of this present week which added to the weeks receipts will run the total not far from one million pounds. The farmers have been busy seeding wheat and oats which about ended this week and with the crop crop harvested the tobacco receipts will be much heavier.

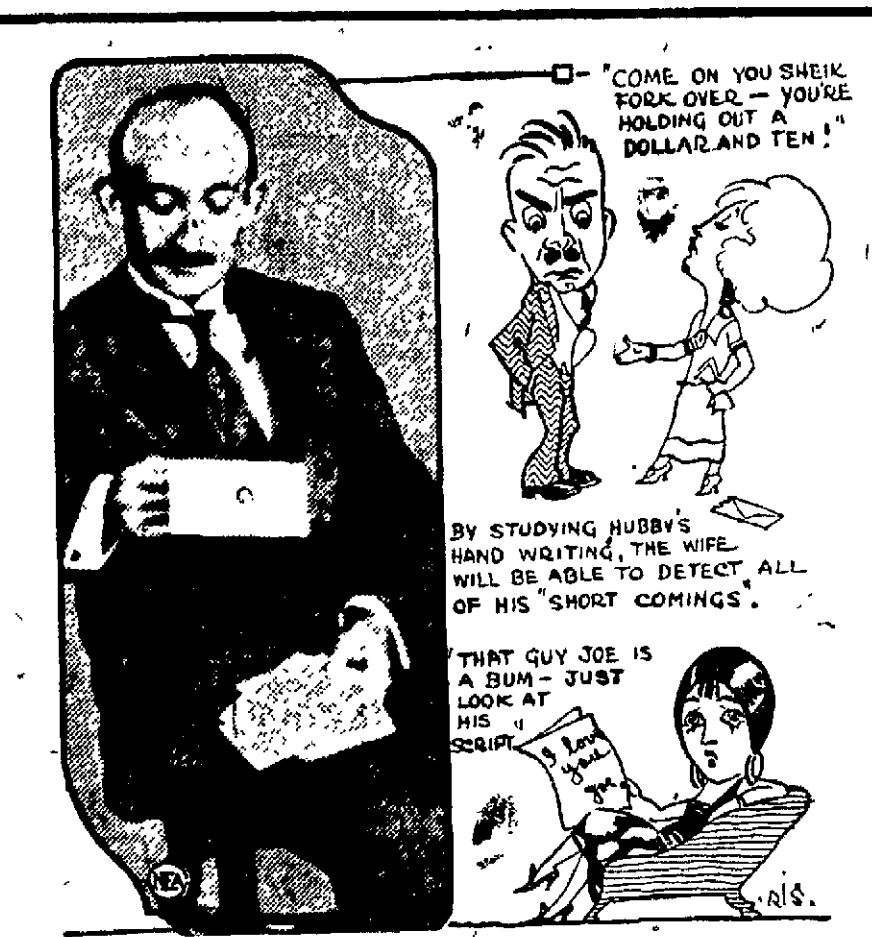

This was county meeting day for the Co-ops and the meeting being of unusual importance had been given considerable publicity and many were in attendance for the first time this year. Several very enthusiastic talks were made and action taken to meet the recent granting in Danville of an injunction restraining further proceedings against the auction warehouses.

Work on enlarging and improving the Chatham Savings Bank building and that of the Planters Bank and Trust Co. is now under way, but to complete both several months will be required. The Chatham Savings Bank will within the near future move into the store building formerly occupied by J. W. Marks & Co. and will occupy their present location until their new building is ready for occupancy which will be some time in the early part of the coming year if not before the holidays.

Rev. Ernest Stevens for two years pastor of Watson Memorial Methodist church of this place left on Friday for his new charge at Crozet, Virginia. He will be succeeded by Rev. Mr. Gum.

Just One Glance At Handwriting and Miracle Man Knows About You

RAFAEL SCHERMANN, MODERN MIRACLES MAN.

By MILTON BRONNER
LONDON, Nov. 4.—If you have any secrets from your wife, your mother-in-law, your business boss, or the police, give a wide berth to Rafael Schermann, who is on his way to America. And above all, don't let him get eyes on any of your handwriting.

For Schermann is declared to be the modern miracle man. Just a couple of lines, idly scribbled by you, reveals to him your past and your future, your aptitudes, your habits, your illnesses, your character, your personality, your knowledge about you and, perhaps, than you know about yourself.

Schermann, whose people are of Polish origin, used to work at a regular job in Vienna as a fire damages appraiser. Suddenly he discovered his extraordinary powers as a graphologist and has been at it ever since, giving exhibitions of his gifts before scientific men in Vienna, Budapest, Prague and Zurich.

There is no possibility of his having a card index on all the people whose handwriting he examines. The stuff doesn't even have to be signed. All he needs is a few lines of your ordinary script.

By some unexplained gift he at once deduces from this a physical and mental photograph of the writer, telling about his gait and gestures, aptitudes and failings, state of health, likes and dislikes, traits of character and temperament. But that is not all.

The accumulation of his personal, psycho-physical detail is merely the raw material of his vision. Out of this detail revealed to him by the dots and line of your handwriting, he is said to tell the course of your life.

Three samples.

First—He analyzed the handwriting of a man who came to him. Schermann said the writer used to have his face smooth shaven but the heavy black mustache was something designed to disguise him; that he was in trouble because of his cleverness at imitating other people's script. Not long after, the man was arrested by the police as a forger for whom a warrant had been long standing.

Second—A young woman submitted her handwriting. He told her she had quarreled with her lover, had taken to drugs and was contemplating suicide. She confessed it was true.

Third—Another girl showed the script of her sweetheart. He told her the young man had incipient tuberculosis and advised her to wait until he was cured. The doctor's examination showed this was the truth.

In Vienna where he lives they say that of the analyses made by Schermann 70 per cent were correct, 22 per cent partly right and partly wrong and only 8 per cent totally in error. Schermann personally strongly objects to being classed with clairvoyants and mediums.

Some Viennese scientists think he has a sixth sense. He has been carefully watched by Professor Benedikt, the famous alienist of Vienna University. Benedikt admits seeing some wonderful things, but says he can't explain them.

The election on Tuesday next has aroused very little interest in the county generally with exception of a few local contests for district offices which are arousing local interest. In the Big River district the regular primary nominees for commissioner and supervisor are being opposed but the friends of the nominees feel that their candidates will come out successful. Road work is being done in the Big River district and a little contesting in the district the east end opposing the west.

For the county offices no nominees are being opposed. As to the bond issue, from indications a large vote will be polled against issuing bonds. The ticket to be voted for on Tuesday will be for County Treasurer W. E. Ramsey, Sheriff J. A. Hodnett, Comm. Atty. P. J. Hundley. Commissioners of the revenue first district J. H. Oakes, second T. M. Green, third S. F. Brown, fourth William Keenan.

The Halloween season was well observed this week beginning with a party at the home of Mrs. Lewis Booker Whitehead on Monday night for the seniors of the Christian Endeavor Society which was well attended and thoroughly enjoyed by all, the occasion being given over to making the young folks have a good time which was very much aided to by the serving of local refreshments. NEW MUSCLE SHOALS PROPOSAL IS OFFERED

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Outline of a new proposal for disposition of the Muscle Shoals project, contemplating a duplication of the Gorgas steam plant, recently sold to the Alabama Power Company and its inclusion in the properties, was presented to President Coolidge today by Chairman Madden, of the House appropriations committee.

WAR DEPARTMENT WILL APPROVE LEASE RENEWAL

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Renewal of the lease of the governments power plant at the Wilson Dam, one of the units of the Muscle Shoals, Alabama project, to the Alabama Power Company will be approved by the War Department Secretary Weeks announced today after receipt by him of an inquiry from the Power Company concerning its position with reference to a renewal of the contract. Under the plan outlined the government would build or authorize to be built a new plant at dams 15, 16 and 17, located about ten miles southwest of Gorgas. The Illinois representative told the president he would begin work on a fall embodying his plan and would have the legislation in shape for presentation when Congress convenes next month. He said also he believed there was a substantial unity of opinion in the House in favor of a speedy disposition of the Muscle Shoals question.

"One of the first acts of Congress should be to clean up this Muscle Shoals proposition," said Mr. Madden, after his conference. "This question has been before Congress long enough and there is a general opinion among House members that it drain on the treasury should be stopped through lease or sale of the war built properties to private interests."

President Coolidge is understood to have informed Mr. Madden that he favored early settlement of the question.

The sale of the Gorgas plant to the Alabama Power Company brought from Henry Ford the statement that he would not modify his offer for the Muscle Shoals properties, which would include a renewal of the contract. Under the plan outlined the government would build or authorize to be built a new plant at dams 15, 16 and 17, located about ten miles southwest of Gorgas. The Illinois representative told the president he would begin work on a fall embodying his

Germany's industrial productivity, regardless of any factor of time. Information reaching the State Department indicates that Germany is not making any reparations payments of a substantial nature and that such payments are not to be expected in the near future without stabilization of conditions in Germany. On the contrary, the United States is almost facing the time when it may be called upon to make available large sums of money to feed German Nationals who might otherwise die of famine due to the confused economic situation in Germany.

In these circumstances the United States government is more than ever convinced that the time has come when a financial plan to make possible the collection of reparations payments should be devised and that value must rest upon a study of every phase of Germany's economic condition.

Washington officials do not regard the creation of a committee to propose such a plan as in any way jeopardizing the treaty rights so jealously guarded by France. The whole question of the suitability of financial plan must be taken up by the governments concerned after the plan itself has been formulated and it is felt here that limitation of the experts' inquiry to the "present capacity" of Germany to pay, as proposed by France, would prevent the development of a program sufficiently broad to promise any important advance toward a solution.

JUSSERAND TO CONFER WITH HUGHES TODAY

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Ambassador Jusserand, of France, who has just returned to the United States from Paris was expected to call on Secretary Hughes today for a conference which promised to go far toward clarifying in the minds of Washington officials the French position with respect to restricting the scope of the proposed inquiry into the reparations question.

Coming direct from the French capital Ambassador Jusserand was believed to be in a position to interpret more definitely the intent and purpose of the restrictions which official reports have indicated his government desires to place on the proposed economic committee investigation. From this aspect his explanation of the French position was expected to be of great importance bearing on the Washington government's course in the present uncertain situation as to the new plan.

Supplementing his understanding of the situation gained during his stay abroad, the ambassador no doubt also will have received last minute instructions from the French foreign office.

The numerous developments reported in connection with negotiations between the allied governments since the ambassador's departure from France have multiplied the uncertainties in the situation so far as their significance has to be regarded.

One entirely clear element in the situation, however, is the American government's reiterated view that a limited inquiry into the question of Germany's capacity to pay reparations would be of little value. Secretary Hughes no doubt will take occasion to argue the logic of this position at this meeting with the French ambassador.

NO NOTE IS INVOLVED

(By The Associated Press.)
PARIS, Nov. 5.—Ambassador Jusserand will verbally communicate to Secretary of States Hughes the attitude of the French government on the reparations negotiations, governing himself in his talk with Premier Poincare before he sailed and by information sent the French embassy in Washington since. He will deliver no note. It was said at the foreign office this morning. The latest instructions from the Quai d'Orsay went forward Saturday.

FRANCE FEELS EFFORTS ARE ON TO ISOLATE HER

(By The Associated Press.)
PARIS, Nov. 5.—Great Britain's insistence upon conditions unacceptable to France in connection with the proposed inquiry into Germany's capacity to pay and the tendency of the world after the point, particularly disagreeable to France in French official circles, as expressed here today, that there is a systematic effort going on to isolate France.

News dispatches from Washington attributing to both Secretary Hughes and President Coolidge sentiments in harmony with those expressed in London and reports that the Americans are inclined to shear off from the French policy, have contributed to this feeling although it is declared in official circles that Paris and Brussels are still in perfect accord.

The French government's firmness in dealing with her proposition for an expert committee on reparations is said to have been fortified by a feeling that there is a disposition to get him into a corner.

The final movements of Lloyd George in the United States which were watched with the greatest attention here, are interpreted as an effort to bring the United States into a cordon around France.

Generals Notch Nearer Title

(By The Associated Press.)
RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 5.—Washington and Lee's gridiron squad was a notch nearer the South Atlantic division title today as result of its victory over the University of Virginia eleven at Lexington Saturday. Although the "Generals" goal line was threatened repeatedly by the Charlottesville team, the latter lacked the punch necessary to make the gains that would have meant scores and when the final whistle was blown a lone touchdown represented the margin of victory by which Washington and Lee remained in the running for the title. Across the campus, just a short time before, the Flying Cadets of Virginia Military Institute, contenders with Washington and Lee for the South Atlantic title, defeated the University of North Carolina 14-0.

The Roanoke College Maroons triumphed over the Catholic University squad at Salem, 14-0, was another feature of the week-end play in the Old Dominion. Virginia Polytechnic Institute, Mulberry in the first quarter in the game at Blacksburg, came back strong in the second period and kept Clemson on the defensive while they rolled up twenty-five points against the six scored by the South Carolinians in the first half. The University of North Carolina won 13-9, North Carolina State nosed out Davidson, 12-5.

Good Morning Judge!

Forty-five cases were docketed for trial in the police court this morning and some little time was taken up in dealing with the various charges. The most unfortunate of the prisoners was H. G. Glass, who was arrested on half a dozen charges growing out of the fact that a truck that he was driving Saturday night had but one light. Officers Towell and Bolton took him into custody when he was approaching them with but one light and they decided to stop the driver. Instead of obeying he stepped on the gas and fled. However, he was finally overtaken and it was found that he was drunk. In the car was a bottle of whisky. When asked for his chauffeur's license he had none. A search of the seat of the car revealed a bottle with a little whisky in it. Glass had come down the street with but one light; he failed to obey the command of the officer, he speared the car and he was assessed $50 in license to drive; the whisky was in the car, so the officers concluded they had landed a man who had very much violated the law and both were placed under arrest.

This morning Glass was fined $51 and costs and given a suspended thirty-day jail sentence on the whisky charge; was fined $101 and costs for driving while drunk; fined $1 and costs for not having license and the improvement lights warrant was dismissed. A number of other cases were assessed $25 and costs for violating the Mapp act. A thirty days jail term was suspended. It was alleged that Lucy Davis, colored, disturbed public worship yesterday but after the negroes had been ordered to leave the church, the charge was finally dismissed for lack of sufficient evidence.

Jennie King, colored, drew a fine of $16 and costs for being drunk and disorderly. A warrant charging resisting arrest was dismissed.

A fine of $26 and costs was imposed on Robert Gaston, colored, on an assault charge.

Fines of $21 and costs were assessed the following for speeding: Willie Scott, colored; H. Carter, H. W. Johnson, A. Y. Bach, Roy Davis, Gordon Cook was not present to answer a similar charge and a speeding warrant against J. T. Hall was dismissed. W. G. Dickens and Janie Crawley were assessed $22 and costs on statutory charges. John Holt, colored, was not present to answer a charge of driving a car without proper license tags. C. H. Powell paid $5 and costs for not having proper tags. Howard Carter fined $1 and costs for not having city permit while a warrant charging improper tags was dismissed.

George Johnson, Walter Reibel, Nelson Hairston, Bud Leftwich, and Ernest Mirable, colored, were assessed $5 and costs each on charges of tambling. Virginia Franklin was not present.

T. I. Stephens and G. H. Tunstall were not present to answer traffic violation charges. Nick Pappas paid the cost of a warrant charging him with creating a disturbance.

E. H. Vaughn and Oliver Foster were fined $14 and costs each for traffic law violations.

A number of drunk cases were also dealt with.

Defense In Stokes Trial Closes Case

Experts In Health In City's Schools

City Health Officer R. W. Garnett today reported the arrival in the city of Miss Ethel Perrin, one of three specialists who are coming to this city at the direction of the American Child Health Association to assist in the dissemination in the schools of authentic information bearing on health. Miss Perrin is one of the promised workers under the agreement with the New York Association that the city would co-operate with the work of these specialists who come to Danville free of city expense. Miss Perrin is described as an expert in physical education, having done most of her work in the Detroit schools. She will be associated with George P. Heubl, director of physical education in the schools, and will make her appearance daily in all of the city schools.

Within the next three weeks Miss Brinton, an expert on nutrition, will come to Danville and will devote her time towards getting the school lunches on a more efficient basis. Dr. H. H. Brinton is head of the domestic science department at the Harrisonburg Normal.

The third expert who is coming to Danville under the auspices of the American Child Health Association is Professor Happy, who will devote his time to the high school. He will be here for only two days. This worker goes under a fictitious name and is said to be a man of unusually magnetic type, an one who can stress certain health truths and messages in a way which will be appealing to the boys and girls of the school.

Dr. Garnett stated today that the whole theory of these temporary additions to the public school personnel is the teaching of health truths which are expected to lend to the adoption of health habits among the children.

Urge Co-Operative Marketing For Wheat Growers

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Co-operative marketing and ready adjustment of acreage to conditions of world production were recommended as promising ways in which wheat growers of the wheat problem in a report submitted to President Coolidge by the War Finance Corporation investigators who recently toured the wheat areas at his request.

Urging the national attitude "a Washington official said today in dealing with the problem, the report, submitted by Directors Eugene Meyer, Jr. and Frank W. Mondell and published today, discussed numerous other proposals presented during their study but which they found either unsound or to offer no permanent solution.

The proposals advanced in the report already have been discussed by the two officials with Mr. Coolidge and may form the basis of a definite administration policy on the question. The report, which was prepared by the War Finance Corporation, organized along sound lines and with competent management and business guidance," the report said, "offer at the present time, in our opinion, more promise of helpful results than any other plan or program that has been suggested. They can do what the speculative cannot, with safety, be relied upon to do. They can by orderly marketing regulate the flow of wheat so that supply is adjusted from time to time to consumptive demand.

"But the change in the conditions in Europe with the withdrawal of dealers and millers carrying only a small percentage of their normal pre-war stocks and with the speculative unable or unwilling to carry wheat in sufficient volume, the producer must organize to carry it himself."

Added to this conclusion was the other that there must be "adjustment of production to American needs if the world market is oversupplied."

Chief among the causes of depression among the wheat farmers were found to be the local cost of labor and existing freight rates on grain. As a measure to relieve the first, it was recommended that tax exempt securities be abolished and the higher brackets of the federal income surtaxes, which were held to encourage investment in place of production, be reduced. The tax exempt securities, the report said, had encouraged states, counties and municipalities to make "extravagant" expenditures.

No Clue To Tot Missing 2 Weeks

(By The Associated Press.)
FORT SMITH, Ark., Nov. 5.—Two weeks after Pearl Turner, three-year-old daughter of Lem Turner, mountaineer, disappeared from her home in the Scott county mountains, officials are without a single clue as to what became of the little girl, although hundreds of men have searched every crack and nook of the mountains and every trail has been exhausted.

The search for the child has covered all territory within miles of her home. Five persons arrested on charges of kidnapping, Chalmers Ferguson, a mountain hermit, have been released and cleared of all suspicion of having kidnapped her and officials again incline to the belief that she has perished.

Reasoning that the mountain in the swearing out of warrants for the arrest of G. E. Corey, said to be a minister of the Holiness church, his wife and their son, W. W. Corey, Mrs. W. W. Corey and a deputy constable, whose name has not been ascertained, Ferguson, said he had been called for the preliminary hearing of the five accused persons in justice of peace court at Waldron and they were released.

No further arrests are forecast in the case and while a few persons continue to search in the mountains the relatives of the little girl are afraid that all efforts will be fruitless.

Motion to Compel Stokes to Take Stand Again Fails—Attorneys In Tilt—Rebuttal Testimony.

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The defense today closed its case in the retrial before Supreme Court Justice Mahoney of the divorce suit of W. E. Stokes, of the divorce suit of W. E. Stokes, of the wealthy hotel owner, against his wife, Mrs. Helen Elwood Stokes. A motion of Samuel Untermyer of defense counsel, that Mr. Stokes be compelled to take the witness stand again to describe affidavits alleged to have been made by other witnesses, was denied after Mr. Untermyer had engaged in a long verbal tilt with Mr. Steur, counsel for Stokes.

Frank A. Murphy, chief steward in 1910 and 1911 on a yacht owned by Clarence McCormick and first witness in rebuttal for the plaintiff, said he had seen Mrs. Stokes on board the yacht twice. Mrs. Stokes then Miss Elwood, he asserted, he was on the yacht in company with Mrs. Ida Adams. He declared also that he believed he had seen her at the 38th street apartment of McCormick. McCormick previously had testified Mrs. Stokes had never been on board the yacht.

Under cross examination by Mr. Untermyer, Murphy said that after Mrs. Stokes had summoned him to his office and asked him to testify at the trial he had given him $20. Murphy admitted he had been employed by James A. Stillman on the yacht Modesty.

When Mr. Untermyer asked the witness whether he was suing Mrs. Stillman for $3,500 for services in connection with the Stillman divorce trial, an objection by Mr. Steur was sustained by the court.

Murphy admitted under cross examination that Mr. Stokes had given him $50 a short time ago to induce him to remain here long enough to testify at the trial and not take a position on a vessel. He said also he had been sent to Denver by Mrs. James A. Stillman to find out whether she ever had been present on the Stillman yacht Modesty.

Carrie Jones, negress, niece of Martha Jones, cousin for Edgar T. Wallace, who testified Mrs. Stokes never had been in the Wallace East 38th street apartment, today contradicted her aunt's testimony and said she had seen Mrs. Stokes in the Wallace apartment many times.

During Carrie Jones' presence on the witness stand, Mr. Untermyer asked that Hattie Johnson, negress, producer of witnesses for Stokes, be removed from the court room. Mr. Steur declared he resented the defense's insinuation that the Johnson woman had been coaching witnesses for the plaintiff but the court ordered the woman's removal from the room.

Over 500 Million Lost By Americans By Marks Collapse

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Between $500,000,000 and $750,000,000 have been lost by American investors through the collapse of the German mark, New York Tribune stated today.

English investors lost about $500,000,000 and other countries a like amount, the newspaper continued declaring that Germany not only had repudiated its national debt but had been the greatest cause of about $2,000,000,000. The loss includes the funds to thousands of small investors, it was said, many of them German Americans who bought marks at 2 cents each or more, in the belief that they would recover. It also includes money invested in German bonds payable in paper money.

Francis H. Sisson, vice president of the Guaranty Trust Company expressed doubt as to whether Germany would be able to establish a stable currency before a basis for a settlement of the reparations question was decided upon, the Tribune started, quoting him as follows: "I do not believe the decline of the market to its present state of worthlessness was due to a deliberate plot on the part of Germany to evade responsibility for its paper money. The decline of the mark began soon after the war was declared and it has declined ever since as a result of Germany's economic situation."

"It would be impossible to tell how much American money was put into German marks. It would be as easy to estimate how many grasshoppers there are in a field of wheat. It is my opinion that an agreement must be reached on the reparations questions before any stable monetary system can be established in Germany."

"I know of no parallel to the wiping out of a nation's currency such as this. The nearest approach to it was, perhaps the collapse of the Russian money and of confederate money during the civil war."

(By The Associated Press.)

Brown, navy aviators, had flew five miles an minute yesterday, Williams, setting a new world's record, won the contest with an average speed of 266.6 miles an hour over a three kilometer course, although Brown on one leg of the flight traveled faster than ever man flew before, racing with the wind at a rate of 275.2 miles an hour. When they meet again tomorrow in the air carnival here, the much sought record of five miles a minute may be attained.

Trained Nurses Praise The Merits Of Tanlac

One of the outstanding features in connection with the Tanlac treatment is the large number of professionally trained nurses who have found the medicine of such wonderful merit that they have come with public statements telling of the remarkable results accomplished by its use. Owing to the wide experience of nurses with various medicines and in the care of the sick, what they have to say about Tanlac will be read with exceptional interest by the public generally.

Mrs. L. A. Borden, 425 Pontius Ave., Seattle, Wash., a graduate of the National Temperance Hospital, Chicago, and for many years a leader in her profession, pays the following tribute to Tanlac:

"From my long experience as a nurse I do not hesitate to say Tanlac is Nature's most perfect remedy. I have used it exclusively for seven years in the treatment of my charity patients. For keeping the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels functioning properly and for toning up the system, Tanlac has no equal."

Mrs. L. A. Lorentzen, graduate of Bellevue Hospital, New York, now a wealthy and influential resident of 285 East Ave., San Francisco, says:

"In all my experience as a nurse, I never found a stomach medicine and tonic that compares with Tanlac. My own health was terrible five years ago and although I spent hundreds of dollars in a vain search for relief from nervousness, indigestion and my generally run-down condition, it remained for Tanlac to give me back my health, and I have enjoyed splendid health ever since. I can sincerely recommend Tanlac to anyone."

Mrs. Cora Lynch, well-known practical nurse, of 358 Avenue C, Birmingham, Ala., expresses her gratitude to Tanlac in the following words:

"For three or four years I had suffered from a combination of stomach, liver and kidney disorders, could not assimilate my food and was constantly suffering from pains in different parts of my body. Tanlac restored my health splendidly. I now keep it in the house and take a bottle when not feeling right. It never disappoints me."

Miss Mary Earle, 1531 North 20th St., Omaha, Neb., for fifteen years a practical nurse, recently stated:

"I can recommend Tanlac not only because of what it has done for me, but also because of what I have seen it do for others. After a long spell of typhoid fever my brother was so weak he could barely walk from one wall to another. I gave him Tanlac and it was simply marvelous. He built him up. Nursing him through that long illness left me weak and exhausted. I could eat but little and my food hurt me. Tanlac restored my health and I am simply marvelous. I am now fifteen pounds in weight. As a nurse and user of Tanlac I give it my unqualified endorsement."

In Dayton, They Take Library Right Up to The Front Door

DAYTON, O., Nov. 4.—If you can not bring the people to the library, take the library to the people. This is the idea behind Dayton's newest innovation, a library on wheels. Officials at the Dayton Public Library wanted to extend the service and get more books before the public. They didn't have money enough to build new branches so they hit upon the idea of a circulating library in a truck.

It is equipped with 600 volumes of selected fiction and carries 104 current magazines. The truck is a library card from one of the young women, who accompany the truck and you draw what books you want. The only charge is the customary fine for keeping a book too long.

Goes Everywhere.
The itinerant library goes over a different route each day and assistant librarians go over the same route opening the gifts, and reading the verses attached to each, the guests played whist at five tables. The tables were arranged in the living room and parlor, which were attractively decorated with yellow, orange and black. The prize was awarded to Mrs. Max Harris, of Baltimore, the next prize to Mrs. M. Roman. After the game a delicious course supper was served in the dining room, and black was carried out in all details. The guests were given pencil and paper to write suggestions for the bride, and these were later read aloud and then presented to the bride. The guests were Miss Ida Evelyn Berman, Mrs. Max Harris, of Baltimore, Mrs. Charles Benjamine, of New York, Mrs. A. Hoffman, Mrs. Laban Silverman, Mrs. N. Newman, Mrs. Philip Turk, Miss R. Berman, Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. J. Goldberg, Miss Victoria Morgan of Charleston, S. C., Mrs. Harry Silverman, Mrs. Moses Roman, Mrs. Fanny S. Mandie, Mrs. M. Harris, Mrs. Sam Kohre, Mrs. T. Harris, Mrs. Nathan Kie, Mrs. J. Berman, Miss Jean Marie Berman, Mrs. Louise Silverman, Mrs. J. Silverman.

Miss Erna Anderson is Hostess.
One of the prettiest parties of the Halloween season was that given by Miss Erna Anderson, at her home on North Main street on Wednesday evening. The guests on entering the front were confronted by a "Detour" sign which carried them to a side entrance, where they were met and ushered in by a ghost, and welcomed by their hostess.

The beautiful home, so well adapted to entertaining, was thrown in suite and everywhere were soft shades, lights, yellow chrysanthemums, marigolds, candles and balloons, which, together with a large open fire in the living room, made the home a lovely setting for beautiful girls and gallant young men.

A floral reading contest was held and the prize, a Halloween witch filled with candy corn, was won by Miss Marion Beaver and Eugene Purdum. Progressive conversation followed this during which a gay Halloween can containing fortune, was given each guest. Each one was asked to read his or her fortune.

The surprise of the evening came when in a clever, little musical skit, written by herself, Miss Anderson announced the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Luck Mac Land to Eugene D. Purdum. After wedding in the December, the couple will be stationed at the post office in the shape of a wedding bell, decorated with a yellow cupid and lover's knot, with heart shaped cakes, iced in velvet.

Miss Lucie Mac Land, the bride-elect, is the older daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Land, Sr. She has resided in this city for eight years, receiving her high school education here, later attending Harrisonburg normal. For the past two years she has been one of the most successful primary teachers of the city.

Mrs. Purdum is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Purdum and is a well-known quite a name for himself, being connected with his father and brothers in the most successful trucking business of the south. The young couple have a number of friends, who will be interested to know of their engagement.

Comrade Girl's Club.
Enjoy October Outing.

Miss Maude Flippin and twelve members of the Comrade Girl's Club of Schoolfield, left Danville last Monday morning in automobiles bound for their annual fall outing which route this year took them by way of Roanoke, Natural Bridge, Lexington, Shenandoah and Luray caves, Harper's Ferry, Frederick, Md., into Washington City and Alexandria, in time to witness the laying of the cornerstone of the National Masonic building.

The return trip was by Richmond once a week in order that the reading public may become acquainted with them.

After the first week's operation, sponsors of the idea declared a long-felt need had been supplied and the library wheels were a success. Hundreds of persons who never before had a library card are now duly enrolled as readers.

The trips of the book truck had no preliminary announcement and took an unsuspecting public by surprise, but the unsuspecting public rose to the occasion and asked for books by the score.

Miss Electra C. Doran, chief librarian, says it is "surprising but true" that people who have not been inside a library for years choose good books.

"The frivolous kind," she says, "are not in great demand. Books which make a person think are the ones that are most wanted."

A La Carte.
We have divided the city into zones. Regular routes have been established in each zone and stations have been designated at which the truck calls once a week. From these stations library cards are distributed and books issued. In addition, the truck may be stopped along the street and books obtained right in front of the homes.

"We have decided to extend the service to rural communities just as soon as we can."

The traveling library is no inconspicuous figure as it ambles through Dayton's streets. Striking posters emblazon its sides, one of which reads as follows:

"Lincoln walked 20 miles to get a book. You have books brought to your door."

Jail Sentence For Drunk Drivers In Schoolfield Court.

After a chase for some little distance local police officers captured an automobile filled with drunken negroes early on Sunday morning. Walter Norris was arrested on a charge of driving a car while intoxicated and Sam Farmer, Napoleon Farmer, Sam Skipper and Jake Martin were arrested for being drunk. The arrests were made by Sergeant J. H. Martin, Patrolman O. W. Bates, T. E. Bowles and Probation Inspector W. T. Shelton on the Mountain Hill road not far from the city. The five men were taken to a hearing before Magistrate R. S. Pitts at Schoolfield. Norris was sentenced to thirty days in jail and fined $100 and costs for operating a machine while drunk and the other four men were assessed $25 and costs for being drunk.

The officers stated this morning that they were scouting in that section about 4 o'clock Sunday morning and a large Mormon car passed them, and they were following it at a terrific rate and scolding from one side of the road to the other. The officers gave chase and soon captured it.

Magistrate Pitts announced this morning that in the future drunken car drivers had best fight shy of his court. He decreed that in the future he would impose a jail sentence on men who drive automobiles on the streets and roads in an intoxicated condition. Norris gave sets an example for his future policy.

The Tangle

An Intimate Story of Innermost Emotions Revealed in Private Letters.

I hope, dear little Marquise, that you are not tired of my conjectures over the baby for I want to add just one more picture that stamped itself on my mind before Sydney Carton left for home.

He stayed with us three days. I have never seen a man so appreciative of real home life as he. I do not think there was a thing in my drawing-room or dining-room, a bit of furniture in his bed-room or the library, that he did not find some appropriate remark with which to show me that he knew exactly its worth and its utilitarian as well as ornamental value.

"Good Lord, Syd! One would think you were taking an inventory of Leslie's household fittings to hear you talk. You have called my attention to things that I never saw before."

"That's right, Jack. I was glad to say to him. 'You have taught me that it isn't one's husband who always sees and appreciates one's taste and the perfection for one's Lanes and Penates.'"

"Do one's household gods have to be perfect, Leslie?" asked Sydney. "It seems to me just at present as though I had been in houses where worship and adoration were given to very useless and very ugly idols."

"Such as?" interrupted Jack. "Of course you wouldn't have me say yourself, smiled Sydney. 'I wouldn't have you say it either, Sydney,' said I, laying my hand on Jack's arm fondly. 'I think he makes a very splendid head of the house as well as father of the child he is now going to christen with the historical name of John Alden Prescott.'"

Jack wriggled as though something was pricking him all over as a hair shirt might have done. "According to mother, Leslie, all my messages are about her arms, her moments, in which the rector is sprinkling water and blessings on the unconscious face of little Jack, in turning over in his grave. She calls him a 'nameless brat,' you know, Syd."

At this I snatched up my baby and started out. I could not speak. It seemed to me that this ceremony would indissolubly knit the bonds between my baby and me in a way that never again could break.

I felt that even Jack had a appreciation of this for as I held the child as proxy for Alice, his arm stole about me and he whispered, "Little mother Leslie, you make me so happy!"

SLAPPED WIFE BECAUSE SHE BOBBED HAIR

(By Chicago Tribune Service.)

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—One may bob her hair and use an occasional dab of rouge and still be a lady, according to a decision handed down today by Judge Morgan in the court of domestic relations.

Frank Campagna was in court, charged with slapping his wife, Evangelina because she bobbed her hair and used rouge.

"Some of the nicest ladies I know bob their hair and use rouge," said the judge. "A wife can be a lady and do those things."

"Well, my mother taught me they could not," said Campagna, "but if you say it is right, I'll take back what I said, for I really love Evangelina and the baby."

"Well, promise before the judge that you'll not try to make an old woman of me and slap me," demanded the wife.

"I promise," said Campagna, as he took the baby from her arms. "You can wear your hair bobbed and put on paint. The judge says it is all right and he should know."

CELEBRATION OF FASCIST REVOLT ANNIVERSARY

By V. G. SANTO

(By Chicago Tribune Service)
ROME, Nov. 2.—After four days of festivities in various cities of Italy a celebration of the first anniversary of the fascist revolution culminated today in the eternal city with such enthusiasm that it might have been supposed that the celebration was the anniversary of the birth of the Italian nation.

The Roman emperors returning from victories abroad had much to envy in the Mussolini triumphs of this city. The press in Rome today refers to the celebration as the apotheosis of fascism, exaltation to the highest degree of courage, discipline and devotion to the motherland. A part of what now is called the "rejuvenated race of Italians" estimated at 500,000 people flocked into Rome from everywhere in the country. Among them were 200,000 black shirts who marched for four hours through the principal streets with Mussolini and a government official at its head.

Hundreds of bands in the parade played national and fascist anthems. Tens of thousands of voices joined in the singing. The streets were festooned with flags of red, white and green draped from the balconies and windows of the buildings. Overhead 300 airplanes and many majestic airships of immense size were maneuvering in battle formation for four hours.

When the parade passed before the quinal presented its homage to the King of Crown Prince at the balcony who maintained attention to receive the homage for hours.

king to sign a decree of amnesty for all those sentenced for less than three years in prisons for political offenses and during the three years of strife between the fascists and socialists preceding the march on Rome which brought Mussolini to power. It is noted that the majority of the beneficiaries were socialists and communists.

Tonight at the historical Palazzo Venezia, Signor Mussolini gave a gala reception in honor of the king, queen and Royal Princes.

DESIGNATION MADE OF ROADS IN FEDERAL SYSTEM

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Designation of all roads in the Federal aid highway system, comprising about 185,000 miles, practically has been completed and approved by the bureau of public roads. The selection of seven per cent. of the roads of the nation for future systematic improvement is declared by the government's road officials to have been the largest and most important task assigned to the bureau. Many conferences have been held with highway officials representing adjacent states in the process of correlating the roads of the primary, or interstate, highways and many difficult situations have been adjusted.

The last of the tentative maps showing the systems proposed by the several states has been received by the government and the work of preparing a map of the Federal-aid highway system of the country is well under way. The Federal highway act requires that the bureau of public roads shall issue by November 9 this year a map showing the progress in designating the Federal-aid system and that maps shall be issued there-

WILL ISSUE GOLD MARKS TO PAY SALARIES NOW

(By Chicago Tribune Service)
FRANKFORT, Nov. 2.—Finding Berlin deaf to their appeals for money to pay wages, the Frankfort Chamber of Commerce today obtained permission from the Reichsbank to issue gold marks to be used entirely in the payment of wages.

The notes will be secured by a dollar loan and treasury bonds. $20,000,000 worth of which will be paid into the treasury of the chamber. Against this security the chamber has the authority to issue $20,000,000 gold marks (roughly $50,000,000)—more than twice the worth of the securities. Business men here believe that the project will fail because the workers and tradesmen will sink their gold notes which will disappear from circulation within a few weeks.

The workers are to receive twenty-five per cent. of their wages in this new paper.

Dozen Morehouse Parish Citizens Be Tried Monday

(By The Associated Press)
BASTROP, La., Nov. 3.—The writing of another chapter of history of mob violence in Morehouse Parish will begin in sixth district court here Monday when more than a dozen citizens of the Parish face Judge Fred M. Odum, for trial on misdemeanor charges growing out of the activities of masked bands last year. The operations of the hooded men culminated August 24 with the kidnapping of Watt Daniel and T. F. Richard, of Mer Rouge.

Two mutilated bodies found in Lake La Fourche four months later were identified as those of the missing men.

At the opening hearings held here in January, the state's inquiry developed evidence of deportations, flogging and other outrages which witnesses charged to a "vigilance committee" and for which Governor John M. Parker held the Ku Klux Klan responsible. A grand jury investigation later failed to result in indictments and Attorney General Cocco filed bills of information charging 18 men. The misdemeanor cases go to trial Monday and the reaction upon citizens of the Parish will determine whether the felony cases will be tried here or go to another Parish on change of venue.

Trial dates for the latter have not been set. Of the misdemeanor cases, only one charge relates directly to the kidnapping of Daniel and Richard. Capt. J. K. Skipwith, exalted cyclops of the Morehouse Klan, T. J. Burnett, cousin

E. N. Gray, Oliver Skipwith, son of Captain Skipwith, and Smith Stevenson are charged with conspiring to compel a person to leave an automobile. Witnesses at the open hearing testified they recognized Gray, Oliver Skipwith and Burnett as members of the masked party which in the outskirts of Bastrop held up scores of automobiles, searched them and made prisoners of Daniel, his father, J. L. Daniel, Richard, T. F. Davenport and W. C. Andrews. The truck which the state contends was owned by Smith Stevenson, of Mer Rouge, who was arrested in Baltimore at the request of Governor Parker on a charge of murder in connection with the Daniel-Richard affair, also is among the misdemeanor defendants. He and W. P. Kirkpatrick are charged with conspiring to compel a person to leave Morehouse Parish and the two also are charged with assault with a dangerous weapon.

The government is said to be in accord with the line action pursued by the industrialists, who reported the progress of their negotiations in a series of communications to Chancellor Stresemann.

Lloyd George is On His Way Back To English Home

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—David Lloyd George, war premier of Great Britain, tonight was on his way home in a flower-filled suite on the Majestic, confident that his plea for the linking of the United States and the British empire for world peace had been well received on his extended tour of Canada and the United States.

The stocky little Welshman sailed at midday with a final word on the reparations crisis. The effectiveness of Anglo-American co-operations, he repeated in glowing phraseology, depended upon whether America "followed through" on the proposal of Secretary Hughes for an international commission to settle the sums that the defeated Allies could and should pay.

France, he was confident, would heed the advice of the United States and Britain regarding reparations.

"France would have been a vassal country but for you country and mine," he said spiritedly.

A crowd of several hundred was on the pier to bid Mr. Lloyd George farewell, after his month's visit to the new world. The police, which twice had foiled attempts of Irish republicans in this city to insult the former premier escorted him in considerable number. No untoward incident occurred. Mr. Lloyd George in the said in separate intelligence in the fact that the Hindu, a disciple of Gandhi, originator of the non-co-operation movement in India, had been removed from the liner. The Hindu was reported to have followed the little Welshman on his tour and at one time to have been detained by Canadian officials.

Mr. Lloyd George was sorry to leave. He had found America "hospitable" to his people "warm hearted," his voice broke a little his gratitude was almost child-like.

"Everywhere I went I was welcomed," he declared. "That touched me most of all. They were all glad to see me."

NOTHING CLEAR AS TO SITUATION

(By Chicago Tribune Service.)
BERLIN, Nov. 3.—The parliamentary situation insofar as concerns the continuation in office of Chancellor Stresemann and his cabinet remains wholly unclear. None of the three bourgeois parties, whom the chancellor invited to continue into the government, has received instructions from the respective parties, nor have the German nationalists given any hint of their attitude toward a strictly bourgeois ministry.

Arkansas Lady Writes She Would Not Be Known for the Weak Invalid She Was Before Taking Cardui

Black Rock, Ark.—On a hill above the Black River here is the home of Mrs. Nannie Brown, who says that she is glad to tell of what Cardui did for her.

"I wish you could see how much I am improved since taking Cardui," says Mrs. Brown, warmly. "You wouldn't know me and I took three bottles before I stopped—then off and on for the last three years, just as a tonic."

"I saw a decided improvement after my first bottle. I used the three and was able to do my work with ease, and now I saw for my family and for others. I am feeling fine and strong, and well."

Cardui, during its more than forty years of usefulness, has helped thousands of other women, just as it helped Mrs. Brown. It can be bought at any drugstore. Ask for Cardui.

That's the chant in Louisiana these autumn days. And in a 'possum recipe contest conducted in New Orleans, a mer man won first prize! He is Edward J. Ford, a white man, at that! Here is his prize recipe:

"Dress 'possum in same manner as young pig for baking, parboiling with capers and onion until fairly tender. Stuff with bread-crumbs dressing, including chopped onions, chopped chestnuts and a little sage. Place

'possum in baking pan with a few peeled sweet potatoes around it, and bake in hot oven, basting with natural gravy that drips from 'possum and dressing while it bakes."

CHICAGO HAS GOOD LOTTERY BUSINESS NOW

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—The lottery business is so good in Chicago that the gambling kings have imported from Kansas City, Julius Barada, "polley expert," not only to conduct the big lotteries being pulled off here, but to give instruction in the art of fleecing the gullible. The word has been passed out the Barada can instruct any man "with $300 how to start a lottery and pay back only seventeen per cent. of the money he takes in."

Barad also sells lottery equipment at a excellent profit and charges $25 for his course of instructions.

It is said that the prospective lottery owners are taught such little "professional secrets" as holding out numbers on which there has been a heavy play, and putting gum on the capsules holding heavily played numbers so that the gummed capsules will either stay at the bottom of the drawing bowl or be so evident to the sensitive fingers of the men bringing out the numbers that he will carefully let them stay in.

BY CASUAL STROLLER
NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—College football coaches might do well to put their players through the daily New York maul to harden them for their big games.

During the rush hours in the subway two persons occupy the same place at the same time. With humanity bulging from the doors, there is always the final plunge for admission. Sometimes the plunger falls short by inches. He is held for downs and another train.

"Hit 'em low on the cry on the football field. But 'Hit 'em any place' is the rule of the subway.

It's New York daily dozen—more strenuous than most football practice.

There are still a few blades of grass on Manhattan on little parking plots along Upper Broadway. Now a merchant's association has gone on record requesting their removal. It would improve traffic conditions, its members believe.

If "an apple a day keeps the doctor away" New Yorkers rarely should be sick. For fruit stands occupy more corners and nooks than eve the saloons of old.

And they do rushing business. Laborers and prosperous merchants, clerks, may be seen hurrying along in the heart of the big business quarter munching apples.

Quick noon-day lunches are usually concluded with this fruit, eaten on the return to work.

Prices are high, some apples bring ten cents a piece.

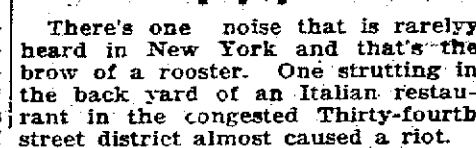

Some day the white lights of Broadway may be lighted by the noise of its traffic. Let us wish that what an English scientist now visiting this country says.

It seems that there are certain kinds of crystals which sound sets into violent vibration. When these crystals vibrate, they generate electricity.

All that the city will have to do is to harness some of the crystals in a box and set them at the leading cross streets where traffic is heaviest. The current set up should be ample to light all the signs and lights. The system is called piezo-electricity. The only trouble with it is that it still costs too much to be practical.

There's one noise that is rarely heard in New York and that's the brow of a rooster. One strutting in the back yard of an Italian restaurant in the congested Thirty-fourth street district almost caused a riot.

Typewriter Run By Voice Latest

GENEVE, Switzerland, Nov. 3.—Are the days of the shorthand-typist numbered? It would seem so if one may believe the claims made for a machine concerning which a patent has recently been applied for at Berne. This is nothing less than a phonetic typewriter, which writes direct from dictation.

The inventor is Mr. Martin Bandil, of Davos, who describes the machine as a typewriter enabling a person to write by the use of the voice only. Until applications for patents have been entered in all countries, Mr. Bandil is maintaining a certain reserve, which one can well understand, but he informs me that a person may type at a speed of 90 to 100 words a minute, and that as many copies can be obtained as with an ordinary typewriter.

Spells Any Language
The question which at once occurs to the mind is: How does he get over the difficulty of spelling? I can only quote his own statement. He says: "The two principal difficulties to be overcome were those of correct orthography and the writing of figures. The first for a long time proved an almost insurmountable obstacle, because, especially in the English language, there are in some cases half a dozen different letter combinations for one single sound."

"Finally, I found a device by means of which the short intervals of silence (one-half to one-fifth second) which in every case take place between two words or distinct syllables are used automatically in finding the correct letter combinations."

"I found a way to write numbers otherwise than in the form of words, while allowing the machine to write them as words if desired—was eventually solved by considerably lowering the voice when figures are wanted, so that only the sound waves created by the voice impress the microphone, while those created by the consonants are lost."

The machine is not large. Mr. Bandil describes it as a cube of about 16 in., weighing about 50 lb., and stands on a small table, such as is used for an ordinary phonograph or typewriter, and in the upper part of the table is a small 1-16 h. p. electro-motor and a battery.

A Business Proposition
The person using the machine starts the current by turning the interrupter, waits a few seconds until the wheels have obtained the necessary speed, and begins talking in a distinct, but not a loud voice, into a specially built microphone arrangement in which every sound wave creates corresponding alternating currents. These are amplified and pass thru a series of apparatus, called distributors, which, in combination with a series of synchronized devices, produce the typewriting on the paper to be written upon.

This paper is rolled on a cylinder similar to that of an ordinary typewriter, but placed vertically. (By The World-Wide News Service, Inc., Boston, Mass.)

Duse, Of Course, Makes Record Hit; But It's Mostly Personal Tribute

BY JAMES W. DEAN
(Special to The Bee)
NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—It has been recorded as a matter of news that Eleonora Duse, world-famed Italian actress, played to the largest audience that ever witnessed a dramatic performance in New York when she appeared at the Metropolitan Opera House this week in Ibsen's "The Lady From The Sea."

It has also been recorded that the total receipts were $30,000, and that breaks a box-office record.

The vast audience that crowded the theater from pit to roof applauded for fully 20 minutes after the final curtain. They wanted to see Duse again and again.

Despite all of the shouting that has been done, this observer believes that he has reported in the foregoing paragraphs just about all there is to report about Duse's return to America as an artistic event.

All of the applause was a personal tribute to Duse. Probably it wasn't even that. More likely it was tribute to the name of Duse.

Certainly only a very small number of the audience understood the Italian in which the play was spoken. Even had the play been in English few beyond the first few rows of the cheap-like building would have been able to hear distinctly. And had they heard, they would not have been greatly moved, for "The Lady From The Sea" is one of the least of Ibsen's works and generally the uninspired work of a master is not nearly so moving as the inspired effort of a less-talented workman.

But there were high hats and low gowns in that audience. You could have checked off the Social Register from those in attendance. And the evening probably will pass as the greatest artistic event of the season.

Think not that your correspondent belittles the artistry of Duse. She is a great actress. She was a greater actress. Despite a voice that still holds the dulcet magic of youth, despite the eloquent gesture with which she measures her lines, despite a presence that continually commands the attention, Duse by no stretch of the imagination can produce the illusion of youth. Her hair is white and her cheeks are sunken. She uses no makeup.

Thus she comes upon the scene in the role of Delidia, whose problem is one of the flesh, and problems of the flesh are exclusively those of the young. Duse imparts to that role a great spiritual appeal, but, after all, sympathy is gained for Duse rather than for the character Ibsen created. To have seen Duse in this performance of "The Lady From The Sea" is only to have gained the distinction of saying: "Now, when I saw Duse—"

The plight of Julia Marlowe is not unlike that of Duse. This week's selection in the Southern-Marlowe repertory of Shakespeare is "Hamlet."

Miss Marlowe plays the role of Ophelia. Now, Ophelia must be a young girl. There is no place for her in the play unless she is young. And Miss Marlowe is revealed as a mature woman.

Probably in no other vocation is age so great a burden nor so long denied as in acting. Old players hold the mirror up to nature but in their own reflection insist that they still see youth.

One of the most inspiring spectacles seen on a New York stage in several seasons is the opening scene of "Oedipus Rex." This tragedy by Sophocles was staged by Max Reinhardt and stars Sir John Martin-

ONE MAN KILLED AND FOUR HURT

(By The Associated Press.)
TITUSVILLE, Pa., Oct. 29.—One man was killed and four persons, including two women, one of them the wife of Chief of Police H. S. Edwards, were seriously injured late today when a tank car of gasoline exploded at the American Oil Works. The large barrel house of the plant took fire following the blast, and was still burning tonight.

The dead man, Fred Simons, of Erie, a world war veteran, was learning the refining business under the direction of the board of vocational education. Mrs. Edwards and Mrs. Estelle Ribb were passing at the time of the explosion.

They were found under a pile of debris an hour later. Mrs. Edwards' skull was fractured and one leg was broken while Mrs. Ribb sustained fractures of both legs and one arm. Others injured were P. L. Langworthy and N. B. Antill, employees of the refinery.

The city was shaken by the force of the explosion and many windows broken. The loss was estimated at $50,000 covered by insurance.

CROWN PRINCE AT WEIRENGEN ABED WITH FLU

(By The Associated Press.)
DOORN, Holland, Nov. 3.—The former German Crown Prince Frederick William, and his faithful aide, Major Von Muldner, are still at Weirengen, according to the latest information reaching Doorn. Both are reported to be abed with influenza.

A dispatch to the Amsterdam Newspaper De Telegraf quotes Major Von Muldner as declaring that all reports about former Crown Prince William going to his estate in upper Silesia are wholly without foundation. In some quarters, here, however, belief is expressed that this denial and the reported illness of the pair are in the nature of false scents in an endeavor to keep the date of the departure for Germany from the newspaper men.

Royal Newlyweds Must Learn Each Others' Language

(By The Associated Press.)
LONDON, Nov. 3.—Prince Gustave of Sweden and Lady Louise Mountbatten, the newest of Europe's royal newlyweds, have an imperfect knowledge of each other's native language. Several weeks ago in course of the prince's lengthy visit to visit in England he decided to brush up his English, but said nothing about it to Lady Louise.

Her ladyship, at about the same time, decided that since she presumably was to be the future queen of the Swedes she should improve her ability in their language.

The prince made inquiries among his friends as to the best academy for his study of English and was recommended to one that specializes in several of the European tongues.

Who she entered to take his first lesson he was greatly surprised to see his fiancée in the waiting room.

"What are you doing here?" each asked and then, after a laugh, they walked away together, deciding to instruct each other after becoming man and wife instead of spending in study the hour that belonged to courtship.

Radio listeners in having heard some of the speeches by prominent men which have been broadcast here recently are asking for more. Agitation has been started to have parliamentary debates sent out by radio every day, wireless fans believing that the speeches would be far more interesting this way than in cold newspaper print.

So much has the demand gone that a question subject is to be asked in the House of Commons when parliament assembles. Meantime some of the papers have thrown open their columns to the opinions of their readers.

Experts point out that there will be little technical difficulty in broadcasting the proceedings of parliament. It could be done by use of a central station at Westminster which would serve six substations in various parts of the country, these, in turn, serve in the intermediate and outlying districts.

This is "rat week" in England. Beginning tomorrow rodents from Lands' end to John O'Groats will have to run for their lives from the combined forces of the farmers and townspeople who have been told officially by the ministry of agriculture that rats annually destroy £15,000,000 in foodstuffs and do untold damage to other ways.

The rat population of the British Isles numbers about 40,000,000 and it is therefore nearly as large as the human population of England, Scotland and Wales. It has been pointed out that if every one assume responsibility for exterminating one rat, then the country will be cleared of the pests but if the people do not rise to their duty as laid down by parliament in the rat and mice' destructive act of 1919, then King George's rats will soon outnumber his subjects on the British Isles.

The dynamometer, a strength-testing machine which Dr. W. Dope, medical health officer for Liverpool has been applying to all comers shows that the so-called average man is 43 per cent. stronger than the average woman. But when it comes to resistance the female of the species is not so far behind. The ergograph, a more refined instrument for the measurement of resistance power, shows that the average 35 per cent. stronger than women.

SERVICE MEDAL OF RARE DESIGN

(By The Associated Press.)
NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 3.—A service medal of rare design, issued by the navy department of 1848, was found by Naval Gunners' Mate Robert S. Hodgins while he was cutting the grass in his yard at Ocean View today.

The medal, fashioned from gold plated copper, bore the following inscription: "Hugh McKay, alias Thomas Snow, U. S. Navy." On the face of the medal is a full rigged sailing ship, a field gun, wreath, crossed guns and sword. Fort Mexico, 1848, Scott Perry and Taylor. Around the edge of the medal is listed various great battles of the war of 1848—Tobasco, Vera Cruz, Palmito, Buena Vista, Cerro Gordo, Chapulabusco, Chapulabusco and San Paqual.

Officials of the naval station, to which Hodgins is attached, are seeking to trace the owner of the medal or his heirs through the navy department. It is believed that the owner enlisted in the navy under an assumed name, and that in recognition of valorous services his real name as well as his alias was inscribed on the medal.

YOUNG GIRL IS KILLED BY CAR

(By The Associated Press.)
MEBANE, N. C., Nov. 3.—Rudy Rippey, of Haw River, N. C., 14 years of age, is dead and seven other persons are receiving hospital attention in Burlington and Haw River as a result of being run down by four negroes in a big touring car a short distance east of Haw River tonight.

The negroes in the car were Will Ford, S. D. Porter, Ree Foy and John Henry, all of Winston Salem, with Henry at the wheel. It is alleged that after striking the party, the negro at the wheel never hesitated, but went racing toward Haw River. After running probably a quarter of a mile, however, the big car ran into a small car and its light was halted. In the collision two of the negroes escaped. One, however, was later captured and tonight only John Henry is at large with officers pursuing him.

MINISTER AND SON ARE HELD FOR KIDNAPPING

(By The Associated Press.)
FORT SMITH, Ark., Nov. 3.—A minister named Corry and his son, were arrested late today by Sheriff Allen of Scott county, Ark., on charges of kidnapping. The minister, a little Pearl Turner, three-year-old daughter of Lem Turner, mountaineer, who has been missing for more than 2 weeks.

The kidnappers were sworn out by Charles Ferguson, mountaineer hermit who claims to have seen the child in the custody of the minister and his son.

The minister and his son will be brought to Waldron Sunday, according to Sheriff Allen. Plans for the most rigid search of the mountains yet made for tomorrow practically abandoned tonight when it became known that the roads and highways to the White Oak mountains from Waldron were practically impassable.

IN MEMORIAM WIN OVER ZEV AND MY OWN

(By The Associated Press.)
LATONIA, Ky., Nov. 3.—A Kentucky bred and owned horse, with a Kentucky boy in the saddle, caused the greatest surprise that has climaxed a turf spectacle in years today when In Memoriam defeated Zev and his greatest American rival, My Own, in the $50,000 Latonia championship stakes before a crowd of 45,000 spectators, who braved a cold, drizzling rain to witness the startling upset.

The victory of the handsome bay son of McGee-Enchantress, owned by Carl Wiedemann, millionaire horseman of Newport, Kentucky, was convincing. Sprinting in the stretch, In Memoriam conquered Zev, the conqueror of Papyrus, and winner of the derby, raced him into submission and flashed across the wire a winner by at least six lengths.

Back of the flashing heels of Zev came Rock Admiral Cary T. Grayson's My Own, trailing eight lengths in three minutes and 45 seconds, 5 1-5 seconds slower than the American record for the distance established by Rock Minister in the same race a year ago.

By Strange coincidence, Jockey Mack Garner, the pride of Kentucky's Knights of the saddle, who rode in Memoriam to victory today, holds the distinction of riding Rock Minister when that three year old established the record.

Harry F. Sinclair, owner of Zev, evidently was convinced that Zev could not be beaten because he plunged $63,000 in the pari-mutuel machines before the race. Sinclair first wagered $30,000. Then he dumped $20,000 more. As the hour for the start drew near he wagered an additional $9,000 more and finally three $4,000 more on Zev's chance to win.

Because Zev and My Own were such overwhelming favorites, a $2 ticket in the pari-mutuels on In Memoriam paid the liberal price of $23.50 to win. The price on Zev was 40 cents to a dollar, while the figures on My Own was $3.75 to $1.

The spectacle aside from the three minutes of stirring struggle was the most brilliant in the history of the classic race. The crowd at the finish cheered wildly as Jockey Garner's boyish face alight, was lifted to the platform in front of the stand and took his place with Owner Wiedemann, while James M. Cox, former governor of Ohio, made the speech in presenting Wiedemann with a gold cup valued at $5,000.

The crowd let loose another shout as a final piece of American beauties was dropped over the shoulders of Jockey Garner, Wiedemann and R. I. Gilmore, trainer of In Memoriam, while the beaten Zev and My Own walked slowly away dropping under their blankets.

Wiedemann, who won $50,000 in cash as first prize for In Memoriam's triumph presented the boyish looking Garner with a check for $10,000 as a reward for his victory.

When the four kings of the nation's three year olds went to the post shortly after 3:30 p.m., the sky was cold and overcast and a drizzling rain which started three hours before, suddenly stopped, leaving the track lightning fast.

The horses were left at the post a ham Hamilton, the starter, sprung the barrier. In Memoriam shot into the lead with Zev, Rialto and My Own right at his flanks. The flying horses had not gone far before the colors worn by Earle Sande, riding Zev, flashed into the lead. Zev was fully clear at the half and clung to the lead until the mile and half was reached.

In Memoriam, trailing third, with Zev leading by three lengths, and My Own running second, started to close the gap as the flying band flushed past the mile and half post.

Coming from behind, Jockey Garner snatched the lead as the field started for the wire, jerking his charge into the commanding position sending them to the front.

Garner, laying his head close to In Memoriam's neck, kept his horse urging the rail and steadily increased the gap between the fast fading Zev, crossing the wire with a lead of six lengths.

My Own, outraced and tiring, struggled into third place, eight lengths back of Zev.

Jockey Sande, who rode Zev to victory in the Kentucky derby and in the international race two weeks ago against Papyrus and also has been astride My Own in six races, declared that in his opinion In Memoriam is the greatest three year old in the country.

"I reached for my whip and went after Zev in the stretch, but he seemed to falter. In Memoriam went by me like we were tied. I have no ability to offer. The best horse won."

Neither Harry F. Sinclair, owner of the defeated Zev, nor Admiral Cary T. Grayson, owner of My Own, which finished third in today's $50,000 Latonia race, consider the controversy between the merits of their horses settled.

"The race is over and what I can say," Admiral Grayson said, "I still have faith in My Own, but I have no excuse to offer for his showing today. The better horse won. My Own is still a great horse and will continue to improve. I still want a chance to meet Zev in a match race."

Mr. Sinclair, as well as Admiral Grayson, was among the first to reach Cary Wiedemann, owner of In Memoriam, and offer him congratulations on his victory.

"A horse race is a horse race with me, but I still think Zev is the greatest horse in the world," said Mr. Sinclair. "If that challenge from France is to meet their champion Epiphane, is still open I may consider it."

ASKS STATE TO ASSUME
ETRICKS SCHOOL DEBT

PETERSBURG, Va., Nov. 3.—Citizens of Ettricks are asking the State Budget commission to have the state assume a $15,000 debt made 16 years ago by the Ettricks schools. If the commission acts favorably the debt will be included in the next budget of Governor Trimble.

R. E. Eanes, a member of the board of trustees of Chesterfield county, appeared before the commission and made the request.

One of the reasons for trying to get the state to assume this debt is because the state legislature put Ettricks schools back into the Matocca district, which has been declared to exist since 1890, has been declared to exist no longer. The report of the commission is anxiously awaited by the citizens of Ettricks and Chesterfield county.

A neglected cough—The beginning of many a dangerous disease

You can quickly stop that exhausting cough that lays you open to disease.

WHEN your strength is exhausted and the delicate tissues of your throat and lungs are raw and sore from coughing, you may fall as easy prey to disease—bronchitis, pneumonia, even tuberculosis. That is why it is so important to break up coughs promptly.

For more than fifty years thousands of families have relied upon Dr. King's New Discovery to stop coughs. It does this quickly and naturally without any bad after-effects whatsoever, by stimulating the mucous membranes to throw off the clogging secretions. It has an agreeable taste. All druggists.

SOME OF THE REASONS WHY WE WILL VOTE FOR THE GOOD ROADS BOND ISSUE ON NOVEMBER 6TH.

We do not believe the State Good Roads System and the "feeder roads" can be built by the "Pay-as-you-go" advocates within the time they say, without increasing the tax on real estate.

We are not in favor of taking maintenance funds to build new roads.

We believe the annual "mud tax" is far greater than the interest on the bonds would be.

We are in favor of all-the-year-round-roads and not just summer-time roads.

We believe the interest can be paid and the bonds retired out of the present one mill tax and the present 3 cent tax on gasoline.

We believe the proposition to issue "serial bonds"—a part falling due each year, is good business and that the bonds can and will be retired promptly under that plan.

We believe the aggregate saving in gasoline used per mile over good roads as against the gasoline used per mile over bad roads will amount to more than the interest on the bonds.

We believe Virginia with good roads would be one of the most toured States in the Union and that tourists would leave in the State a large sum of money annually, and through the gasoline tax pay their share of the road tax.

We believe the usable life of automobiles would be extended by good roads and that this saving to the people of this State will be annually more than double the annual interest on the bonds.

We believe that Pittsylvania county, because it is a large county, and, therefore, has a large road mileage, will be one of the most benefited counties in the State by the Good Roads Bond Issue—the golden opportunity for Pittsylvania County.

We believe that Pittsylvania County will be making a blunder not to vote the Good Roads Bonds, because, altho there are 100 counties in the State, about one-twentieth of the proceeds of the bonds or about $2,500,000 will be spent on the roads in Pittsylvania County—without any increase in taxes.

We believe the 89.1 miles of State Roads and the 227 miles of "feeder roads" in Pittsylvania County can be built in five years by the bond issue plan but their construction will be strung out over a long period of years by the pay-as-you-go-plan.

We believe the maintenance of the 227 miles of "feeder roads" in the county should be taken over by the State and allow the county to devote its resources and energy to building and maintaining its other roads.

We do not believe the "pay-as-you-go" advocates can make good.

We believe if the Bond Issue is defeated the completion of the good road system in Virginia will be delayed at least a decade.

MOVEMENT TO AVERT AMERICAN EAGLES EXTINCT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Unearthly killing of American eagles in Alaska has stirred up a hornet's nest among naturalists and wild life enthusiasts. The American Nature Association has taken up the cudgels against the law and, as the first move in a campaign for its repeal and for the protection of the rapidly vanishing American eagle, has issued an appeal to every school teacher in the United States to file a protest on behalf of his class.

The law, it is said, was passed on the ground that eagles live on salmon and thereby damage that industry, one of the most important in Alaska. But the Nature Association points out in reply that a salmon dies after spawning and the eagles eat the fish after they have died and after they have perpetrated their kind. "One of the best places to see the American eagle is on our money and the only place you can see it if the slaughter of this bird is kept up," says the American Nature Association's call. "No longer do the tourists to Alaska see these emblems of American liberty aloft above the forest and shoreline."

Woodrow Wilson Home Mecca Of Pilgrims Nov. 11.

BY GEORGE H. MANNING.
(Special to The Register)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 3.—The Armistice Day pilgrimage next Sunday to the home of former President Woodrow Wilson is expected to be of far greater importance than either of its two predecessors and may outline very clearly the position of the Democratic party on international affairs in the campaign of 1924. Virginians will take a very prominent part in the exercise. If the present plans of the committee on arrangements is carried out, strong influences are at work to have Senator Carter Glass of Virginia act as the spokesman for the throng that will call at Mr. Wilson's home and will have Governor Lee Trinkle and a number of other prominent Virginians participate.

In view of the impending national campaign the Wilson pilgrimage assumes unusual interest and importance this year. It is expected also to serve as an outline for party policies to be more fully set forth in addresses at the Jackson Day banquet which will be revived with a big gathering of Democratic party leaders here in January.

The leaders and the voters of both parties will undoubtedly anxiously await the views expressed by the spokesmen for the pilgrims and the response of the invalid former president to the invitation to participate in the past four years have effected any change in the views of the Wilson Democrats towards the treaty of Versailles, and to weigh what will likely be the position of the Democratic party towards the League of Nations and the world court in the campaign of next year.

It is planned to have present the governors of the states of Woodrow Wilson's birth and adoption, Governor Trinkle of Virginia and Silver of New Jersey, respectively, and many noted leaders from all over the country. Joseph P. Tumulty, close friend of Mr. Wilson before he came to the White House and his secretary while he was president entered heartily into the arrangements for the Armistice Day pilgrimage when he was approached. He surprised members of the committee on arrangements, who approached him cautiously on account of the breach of friendship between him and his former chief, by declaring his anxiety to take part and expressing his wish to furnish a band for the occasion. There was no lack of either of the two former pilgrims but last year a lady sang a song.

As alternates in the event Senator Glass is unable to deliver the address for the pilgrims, the names of John W. Davis of West Virginia and David L. Houston of Texas are being mentioned. Mr. Davis is being mentioned quite prominently as a candidate for the presidency on the Democratic ticket next year. Mr. Houston was Secretary of Agriculture and later Secretary of the Treasury in Mr. Wilson's cabinet and is held in high regard by his former chief, who is understood to have said that Mr. Houston had all the qualifications necessary for a good president of the United States.

Mr. Wilson will make it quite clear, it is believed, that his views towards the League of Nations have undergone no change since he left the White House, a "war invalid." That he will moderate his views in the interest of party success next year or because of the changes that have occurred in Europe is considered very doubtful.

The three men under consideration to voice the views of the pilgrims, Glass, Davis and Houston, have been warm sympathizers with the position of Woodrow Wilson before he left the White House and have not, it is believed, materially changed their views since.

Arrangements have been made to broadcast a ten-minute address by Mr. Wilson to hundreds of thousands of listeners all over the world on Saturday night, November 10th, on the eve of Armistice Day. The former president's subject will be "The Significance of Armistice Day." The Armistice Day pilgrimage to the home of former President Wilson has grown from a spontaneous march of several hundred of his admirers to his residence on November 11, 1921, to the dignity of national recognition and acceptance. On Armistice Day, 1921, Mr. Wilson rode in the great procession of thousands to honor the unknown soldier entombed at Arlington. He was greeted with tumultuous applause all along his route by the crowds who viewed him as one of the many who fell in the world struggle. When the exercise at Arlington were concluded several hundred in the crowd marched about the former president's residence at 2340 S Street, Northwest, and cheered him until he appeared. A brief impromptu address was made for the crowd by Hamilton Holt. Mr. Wilson terribly enfeebled by his long illness.

ONLY A DOG, BUT SHE SENDS MASTER THROUGH COLLEGE

RITA VON SERCAYNOTS

(Special to The Bee)
NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 4.—Rita is a good scout.
And Watkins Crockett, Jr., always will swear by her. Why, she's even sending him through college!

Rita's right up among 'em in the "400." She's of aristocratic Teutonic stock. Even her name—Von Sercaynots—is quite highbrow.
But she isn't a bit stuckup. He's just as democratic as any other dog in Nashville. Yes, Rita's just a dog. To Crockett, though, she's almost human.

And oh, what a pal she is! Every morning, she trots along beside him as he goes to school, doing an about-face toward home only when he tells ness was unable to respond.

On Armistice Day last year plans were made for the Pilgrimage and Henry Morganthau delivered an address for those assembled. Mr. Wilson made a brief speech in reply in which he lashed the "puny persons who stand in the way" of American participation in the effort to stabilize world conditions.

The committee in charge of the arrangement as composed of Huston Thompson, of the Federal Trade Commission, chairman, Mrs. Robert W. Wooley, of Virginia, vice-chairman and Mrs. H. E. C. Bryant, secretary.

COTTON MARKET WAS MOST ACTIVE

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The excitement and strength which characterized yesterday's cotton market were in evidence again at the opening today when prices on all active deliveries showed advances of 20 to 55 points due to a renewal of mill buying and outside support through commission houses. Fear of a widespread cotton shortage had spread throughout the domestic and foreign cotton trades over night and resulted in heavy accumulation of contracts.
The demand sent the January delivery to $2.18, March to $2.33 and May $2.30, representing 58 to 70 points net advance or fully $13.40 a bale up in two days and at a new high level for the season. The south sold a good deal of cotton at the advance, however checking further rise and in the last hour rather sharp reactions where the market finally unsettled and generally 10 to 38 points up.

PLAINSMEN LOSE A BITTER FIGHT

(By The Associated Press)
COLUMBUS, Ga., Nov. 3.—Georgia's Bulldog clan turned back Auburn Plainmen here this afternoon at the Driving Park Stadium in the annual gridiron classic between these two institutions by the score of 7 to 0.
It was anticipated for war pass by Day, Georgia center, near the middle of the second period and a run of 65 yards through a comparatively open field that led to the touchdown giving the Bulldogs a victory in one of the best played battles between the two teams in years.

The field was soggy and a steady drizzle fell during the last two periods. Statistics show that Auburn gained 12 first downs to only four by Georgia.

Cornell Crushes Dartmouth Team

(By The Associated Press)
HANOVER, N. H., Nov. 3.—Four times the great Cornell football machine rolled down the field today with its crushing tackle attack and each time carried the ball across the Dartmouth line; twice goals from the field sailed between the Dartmouth goal posts, and at the end of the game the Dartmouth team, conqueror of Harvard, was routed and beaten 22 to 7. For Cornell, it was the twenty-first consecutive victory. For Dartmouth it was a taste of the same bitter "dedication medicine" that the Big Green administered to Harvard, to the University of Washington and again to the University of Vermont when their athletic fields and stands were inaugurated.

Conclusive as the victory was, it was not Cornell's offensive power alone that counted in the final result, for the first two touchdowns followed Dartmouth fumbles, both just inside the 25 yard line. A third fumble, inside the 20 yard line figured in the last goal from field. Yet in each case, Cornell, in possession of the ball in Green territory proved irresistible.

Combining aerial assaults with its amazing battering ram smashes through tackle and four bullet-like runs by Captain Pfann, Cornell clearly established its margin of supremacy and earned its victory.

MIDDIES DEFEAT COLGATE ELEVEN

(By The Associated Press)
ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 3.—Displaying more sustained power of attack and a defense that stood up like a veritable stone wall after the enemy had advanced well within the crucial zone, the Annapolis Midshipmen beat down the strong Colgate football team on Farragut Field today by a score of 9 to 0.

Twice in the second quarter the sailors marched to Colgate's ten yard mark and in each instance the visitors braced. Barchet failed in his first try for placement goal but made good on the second chance from the 15 yard mark.

Quarterback Shapley, of Navy, in the final period broke through Colgate's forward defense and zigzagged his way through a broken field for a dash of 65 yards for a touchdown. Barchet failed in the try for point.

SIX FIELD GOALS
Quarterback Covington of Centre College, who was so roughly handled in the recent game with Pennsylvania, holds a record for goals from the field. In a game last year in which Centre won as it pleased, Covington was given every opportunity to score goals from the field and managed to boot six over the cross-bar.

Virginia Tech Defeats Clemson

(By The Associated Press)
BLACKSBURG, Va., Nov. 3.—Virginia Tech defeated Clemson here today 26 to 0. The visitors, presenting the fastest backfield seen on the local field in many years, started off with a driving offensive and ran over a touchdown in the opening period while the locals missed their only chance to score when a drop kick went wild. Coming back in the second period the Tech eleven took the offensive and by driving over a touchdown in six plays went into the lead. Rutherford added three more points with a drop kick.

In the final period Tech crossed the Carolinians' goal twice more and again Rutherford's toe proved good for three points when he drop kicked from the thirty-five yard line. Flory was the outstanding performer of the game, all three of Tech's touchdowns resulting from his brilliant end runs.

"PITT PANTHER" BEATEN BY PENN.

(By The Associated Press)
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3.—An infuriated "Pitt Panther" fought desperately on Franklin Field today but could not surmount the one obstructing touchdown that University of Pennsylvania football team had thrust in its path, the final score being Pennsylvania six; Pittsburgh 0. A smashing, battering attack with McGraw, Thomas and Hamer, Pennsylvania backs, furnishing the driving power in the second period took the ball from the 35 yard line over the goal. McGraw in a lunge off tackle carried it over.

It was Pittsburgh's first defeat in nine years by Pennsylvania, the latter having lost seven straight engagements and tied one.

PLAY NOTRE DAME
The Army and Princeton are glutted for punishment. Notre Dame is again on the schedule of both schools for 1924. The game with Princeton will probably be played a week later. This will give the Tigers a better chance to get in shape, since the agreement of the so-called "Big Three" limits the training period in football.

Generals Defeat Virginia In Hard Fought Contest

(By The Associated Press)
LEXINGTON, Va., Nov. 3.—The fighting Generals of Washington and Lee won a hard fought grid iron struggle from the University of Virginia on Wilson field this afternoon by a 7 to 0 score, the lone touchdown coming in the third period when a series of dashes and plunges through the line by Hamilton and Captain Cameron brought the ball to Virginia's eight yard line where Cameron smashed across the final chalk mark. Frew kicked goal for the extra counter.

A crowd estimated at 7,500 persons viewed the game, victory in which moved the Generals one step nearer the South Atlantic championship.

Threatening repeatedly in the first half and final quarter, Virginia was unable to deliver the decisive punch when gains would have meant scores. The visitors registered six first downs in the first half as compared with the two gained by Washington and Lee. Around mid-field the Old Dominion eleven displayed an able offensive which vanished as the Generals' goal was menaced. Within their 30 yard line, the local team stiffened and held each attacking advance.

Arnold, the fleet Virginia half back reeled off several good gains around the ends but his team mates failed to follow up on his brilliant efforts. For naught Maphis, of Virginia, had the edge over Frew, of the Generals, in the punting duel which was intermittent throughout the first half. Diffey showed speed and elusiveness in returning the Generals punts.

Captain Cameron's entry into the game, replacing McMillan, at the beginning of the second half marked the launching of the Generals' offensive which ended only when he scored the winning touchdown. Hamilton co-operated with his captain in moving the ball goalward in the successful advance.

Washington and Lee kicked off to start the battle. A series of line plays and runs gained little for Virginia. An interchange of punts ended with the ball in the Generals' possession on the visitors' 40 yard line. A line assault was turned back and the period ended with the ball near mid-field.

Virginia advanced the ball to the locals' 28 yard line in the second quarter and Arnold there tried a

DANVILLE HIGH TIES ALTAVISTA IN SNAPPY GAME

Outplaying their opponents thruout the game the warriors of Danville High school yesterday were unable to do any better than a tie with the eleven from Altavista, the final score being 6 to 6. In the first quarter the visitors intercepted a forward pass, and, with a clear field, scored a touchdown.

It was not until darkness had descended upon the field and there remained only five minutes to play that Danville was able to push across the tying score.

Taking the ball on Altavista's fifteen yard line Captain Wilson and his men, by straight football, crashed their way down by down across the field to have their efforts crowned with success at last.

In the last few minutes of play Danville made another determined march down the field and the winning blow as Captain Wilson was brought to earth a scant five yards from the coveted goal line.

Wilson, Blair and Taylor were the backfield stars for the local team. Franklin also played splendid ball. In the line Dyer and Witcher were the outstanding players. For the visitors, Lane, left end, and Frazier, fullback, were the stars.

The line up follows:
Altavista Pos. Danville
Lane L. E. Ducker
Lane L. T. Taylor
Withers L. G. Tucker
Blackwell C. Zabawa
J. Bowen R. G. Broadus
McCoy R. T. Dyer
Burnett R. E. Witcher
Milburn Q. B. Ruffin
Dudley L. H. Blair
T. Bowen R. H. Harris
Owen F. B. Gwynn
Frazier Substitution Altavista. Arriver for McCoy. For Danville: Taylor for Harris. Franklin for Gwynn. Wilson for Rucker. Pearson for Davis. Muselman for Ruffin. Clarke for Zabawa. Perkins for Clarke. Zabawa for Broadus and Rucker for Blair.

EDDIE COLLINS MAY BECOME A MANAGER

(By Chicago Tribune Special)
CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—A deal is shaping itself whereby Eddie Collins, star second baseman of the Chicago Americans may be selected as manager of the Washington Americans, according to reports current in local baseball circles.

The prospective trade has not yet reached the stage of actual negotiations. Chicago White Sox officials said, but they indicated it was being given consideration.

Collins was recently mentioned as likely to succeed "Kid" Gleason until the latter resigned as manager of the White Sox. Since the selection of Frank Chance as 1924 pilot of the team Collins is reported to have advised President Comiskey that he aspires to be a manager.

Ford Four-Door Sedan

$685, tax, fully equipped.

Inside and out, the new Ford Four-door Sedan shows improvements of far more than usual importance.

It is lower and sturdier in appearance. New cowl, hood, radiator and apron add size and finish to the front. Sun visor, and wide, well-finished aluminum doors with bar handles perfect the design of the body.

The lasting lustre of the exterior finish is equalled in richness by the soft brown shades of the silk window curtains and the deep broadcloth upholstery.

Dome light, door locks, window regulators and handles, all finished in nickel, complete a refinement you would expect only at a far higher price.

Convenience, utility and economy have established Ford supremacy. The Four-Door Sedan adds to these factors greater Ford prestige.

This car can be obtained through the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan.

BEAU BUTLER IS PIMLICO VICTOR

(By The Associated Press.)
BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 3.—The winner of the $40,000 futurity, this afternoon's great feature at Pimlico, came from Kentucky. It was the 10-year-old colt Beau Butler, owned by Harry Payne Whitney's Transmute fourth. The time for the mile was 1:30 1/2. The youngster caused some delay at the post but was finally off to a good start. Lord Baltimore II rushed into the lead when the barrier went up and with Aga Khan second, rounded the first turn into the back stretch. Straightened out for the long run down the back stretch Lord Baltimore still led but Aga Khan dropped back to fifth place, while Sunners moved up and closed on the leader. At this point Beau Butler began to threaten. Passing the half, Lord Baltimore retired. Sunners took the lead. On the stretch turn Beau Butler moved up and in a jiffy was in front and coming on, won well in hand. From the top of the stretch, Rustie began his run but though ridden out could not reach the winner. Aga Khan headed stoutly at the end to get this money from Transmute. The winner always had something in reserve. The race netted the winner $54,020.

Yale Triumphed Over Army Tea

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 3.—Smiling to gridiron glory it has not known in recent years, Yale crushed the Army 21 to 10 today and stamped itself as one of the greatest eleven the east has turned out this year. A brilliant throng of 7,000 witnessed the smashing triumph.

After a bewildering, irresistible attack in the third quarter, one on a spectacular 17-yard run by Neidinger, an outstanding star of the game, and another on a forward pass, Neale to Luman. Doggedly, courageously the cadets tried to rally but they found themselves up against a stone wall defense and a driving attack that they could not stem. One more touchdown, the result of a brilliant 36-yard run by Richardson after he intercepted a forward pass, and a drop kick by Mallory in the last quarter completed the victory.

If any further evidence of Yale's overwhelming superiority throughout the last half were needed, the figures supply it. For in the final two periods the Blue forces gained a total of 155 yards by rushing while the Army was able to advance but seven yards in straight plays. Yale made eleven downs but three for the cadets whose only effective show of offense came by the aerial route in the closing moments of the game.

GAMEROCKS PUT GREAT SCRAP IN GAME YEST'DAY

(By The Associated Press.)
COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 3.—In one of the hardest struggles ever seen on a local gridiron, the University of North Carolina today fought their way to a clean cut 13 to 0 victory over the University of South Carolina at University Field here.

All scoring was done in the second period. North Carolina made 20 first downs to none for the Gamecocks.

South Carolina fought against overwhelming odds throughout. Early in the opening period the invaders tipped jagged poles in the Gamecocks' line, making three first downs in rapid succession. The Tar Heels threatened often to score but it was not until they sprung a surprise in the form of a fast line-up for scrimmage that they scored. Bonner carrying the over 67 yard for a touchdown. Devin missed the goal. Soon afterward Underwood was pushed over from the two inch line for the second touchdown and Devin kicked goal.

Throughout the remainder of the game the Gamecocks were continuously on the defensive once holding for downs on their one yard line once on the three yard line and several times within 15 yards Jeffords 30-yard punt from behind his own goal line in the final period was a beauty. Bonner and Underwood, backed by splendid interference, starred for North Carolina.

TEAPOT DOME TO PRODUCE 20,000 BARRELS A DAY
(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Confidence that the Teapot Dome, Wyoming, oil reserve at a time will produce 20,000 barrels a day was expressed today by Harry F. Sinclair, head of the company that is developing the field under a lease obtained last year from the government. During testimony before the Senate Committee which is investigating the leasing. Production at present, he said, averages 5000 barrels a day.

Pointing out that under the terms of the contract, the Mammoth Oil Company until daily production reached 20,000 barrels, Mr. Sinclair said belief that such an output would be reached and maintained led to the commencing of pipe line construction. About 75 per cent of the line has been completed he said and estimated that the entire job would cost $25,000,000.

GEORGIA TECH IN SCORELESS GAME WITH ALABAMIAN
(By The Associated Press.)
ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 3.—Alabama and Georgia Tech battled to a nothing-nothing tie here this afternoon, playing in a cold drizzle on a sodden field. Reeves vainly effort to kick a field goal from Alabama's 45-yard line in the third period marked the nearest approach to a score, although on three occasions Tech advanced the ball to within a few strides of the Alabama goal, only to be easily turned away.

With the exception of three short runs, the longest of which was for 17 yards by Alabama, the game was devoid of features. Both teams punted often without appreciable advantage. Tech tried the only forward pass of the game and it fell harmlessly.

The Yellow Jackets far outdistanced the Alabamians in yards, from scrimmage out their first down came mainly in middle ground. Albright, Tech left half, entered the game in the second period and gained 18 yards on two attempts. Wyckoff carried the ball 10 yards to the five-yard line but the visitors stopped the attack on their own three.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 5.—Better cables than due caused a rise of 15 points in the opening of the cotton market today, but heavy realizing from the long edge soon furnished considerable pressure and prices fell off. At the end of the first half hour of business the trading months were 3 to 13 points under the last sales of last week. December traded up to 32.10 and then fell off to 32.17.

Chicago Chosen If
Billiard Matches
Result In a Tie

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—In the event final matches between William F. Hoppe, champion, Welker Cochran, youngest American cue expert and Jacob Schaefer, II, end in a tie the finals of the third international tournament, 182 ball line billiard championship will be played off in Chicago.

Chicago was chosen for the possible tie play off owing to the inability to make hotel arrangements at the Hotel Pennsylvania or Astor. Hoppe and Schaefer meet tonight and Cochran plays Edouard Horremans, Belgian champion, this afternoon. Cochran, in defeating Hoppe and Schaefer, is conceded the advantage in the triple tie play. If he defeats Horremans, the winner of the Hoppe-Schaefer match must meet him and should he lose, the winner of the Hoppe-Schaefer engagement will be champion.

DAILY PUZZLE

CAN A DARING CORPORAL ASK
A GRAVE GENERAL FOR A CIGAR?

Unquestionably, he can. But probably he won't get it, and what he is likely to get is another story. The puzzle, however, is to find three names concealed in the sentence: the name of a country, of a vast territory, and of a city in India. The names are there in plain view. The prompt is to find them.

Yesterday's answer:

By cutting off the bottom of the keystone and setting it on top, the plain four-sided stone was made into a regular keystone.

Cornell, Yale and Syracuse Vanquish
Powerful Foes

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Football followers found much for discussion in the battles of Saturday in which Cornell, Yale and Syracuse vanquished powerful foes.

The day's spectacular in many contests, came up to full expectations as a big football day. Yale was vindicated for paying her football coaches $42,000 a year when the Blue team's scalp, no mean accomplishment, by the score of 31 to 10.

Cornell made a great showing against the unbeaten Dartmouth team, ending with a 22 to 7 victory and Syracuse took the measure of the unbeaten Penn State team 6 to 0. Cornell is the largest point scorer of the east. Syracuse is the only one whose goal line has not been crossed.

Pennsylvania's victory over the Pittsburgh Panthers put the Red and Blue eleven that much nearer the chance to curb Cornell's advance. Columbia showed marked improvement in defeating the Middlebury element, even which had Harvard. Harvard's defeat of Tufts eliminated another worthy contender for the high places. Princeton, in beating a none too strong Swarthmore team, showed itself weak against the forward pass game.

Other outstanding contests were Navy's 9 to 0 defeat of Colgate and Amherst's victory over Wesleyan 12 to 10.

Eddie Tryon of Colgate retained his place in the individual's scorers column in the East, despite his team's defeat. He has a total of 7 points to his credit, amassed on 13 touchdowns. Glennon, of Holy Cross scored two touchdowns against Vermont, gaining second place in the total of points and moving to within two touchdowns of Tryon's mark.

Smrthe, of Army, who scored on Yale, is third in the list with 60 points while Darling, of Boston College, advanced to fourth place. Wilson, of Penn State dropped back to fifth. Sundstrom, Cornell, retained his lead in scoring points after touchdown with Garbisch of Army hanging on his heels. McBee of Syracuse took the lead for field goal honors.

NEW YORK COTTON.

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The cotton market opened firm at an advance of 5 points on October and of 18 to 33 points on the more active positions in response to higher Liverpool prices.

Reports of further rains in the south over Sunday and more favorable Manchester trade advices. December sold at 32.49 and March at 32.133, but there was a good deal of realizing at these figures and prices eased some 10 or 15 points from the best during the early trading. Both Liverpool and New Orleans will remain open for business tomorrow and the possibility of fluctuations in these markets while New York is closed probably led to a scattering of accounts here this morning.

NEW YORK STOCKS.

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Stock prices fluctuated within narrow and irregular limits at the opening of today's stock market but the line of least resistance still appeared to be upward. Some profit taking took place in the rails and such speculative favorites as Baldwin and Studebaker, which yielded fractionally on initial sales. Brooklyn Union Gas and Stewart-Warner each advanced one point.

Heavy buying of DuPont, which advanced 2 1/4 points, was the feature of the early dealings. Gains of 1 to 2 points also were recorded by Bank American Chemical, American Agricultural Chemical preferred, Union Gas and Paper and Coca-Cola. Baldwin and Studebaker recovered their early losses and started for higher ground. Marine preferred and Farnham also advanced under pressure, each dropping a point. Foreign exchanges opened firm with the exception of German marks which fell to a new low of twenty cents a trillion.

Issue of $100,000 American T and T 5 1/2 per cent debentures offered to 3 to 5 5/8, $9,000,000 province of Alberta 5 1/2 per cent bonds offered at par.

MORNING COTTON LETTER

Thomas & McKinnon

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Irregularity and slower pace, characterized the cotton market Saturday. The heavy short covering Friday resulted in reducing the bear interest. Professionals took profit over the week-end but nothing suggestive of weakness was discernible. It is the general impression of well informed people that merchants in the South have sold a great deal of strict and good middling and, owing to the poor quality, they are finding great difficulty in filling their commitments. Prices have been held around 3 1/4 cents but will eventually pay very handsome profits.

MORNING STOCK LETTER

Thomas & McKinnon

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The burden of the argument of those bearishly inclined is that they can't see any change in business to warrant an advance. Well these are things you can't always see plainly at the start but I would recommend that they take a look at yesterday's world—read an article by the real estate editor which is headed as follows: "Giant building boom swamps plans for cheap homes. Sky scrapers, delayed public work, lead new boom. No drop in prices while money flood tide holds. Increased wealth of the country banks overflowing with unused resources spur builders to undertake immense operations in response to demands made more urgent by several years of postponement on account of housing precedents." Another thing—Keep watch of developments in the oil industry, with your eyes constantly on the big companies, they will soon be masters of all.

MORNING GRAIN LETTER

Thomas & McKinnon

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—If any relief be extended to European famine stricken districts it will probably be in the shape of flour rather than wheat therefore, the conservatively small export business reported daily will be misleading. For sometime past the Pacific coast markets have been doing a heavy export trade. Market slowly shaping for a higher trend.

PAGE SAN GOMPELS!

JERUSALEM, Nov. 3.—The American Federation of Labor better get busy quick. Jewish railway workers in the Holy Land are organizing. And they've already affiliated with the International Transport Workers Federation of Berlin. Workers of Warrenton, St. and his colleagues know about it.
